DANIEL CAMPBELL CHOSEN COUNCILMAN!

BIG SHAKEUP RESULTS AT ORDER OF COUNCIL

Chief of Police Put In Charge Of Department With 'Full Power'

A. H. Lankford, a member of the Glendale fire department since November 7, 1913, whose appointment as chief has run continuously since July 1, 1915, was removed from that office this morning by the City Council.

John D. Fraser, chief of police, was appointed acting head of the fire department with full power to make appointments, discharge employees and "make a clean sweep of the department, if necessary."

Internal Friction

Rumors have been frequent for some time of internal friction in the fire department, and these culminated yesterday in the discharge by Chief Lankford of four members of the force, headed by Captain E. C. Fairchild.

The three other members reported as relieved from duty were C. J. Cartnell, F. B. Wilson and Roy E. Nagle.

The announcement this morning that the council had asked for Chief Lankford's resignation came as a bombshell. It was understood at the City Hall that he had the support of the members of the council in his efforts to create a harmonious organization.

Up to Police Chief

"We have appointed Chief Fraser with full power to act," said Mayor Robinson. "He is to reorganize the department. Whom he will appoint or whom he will discharge is entirely up to him."

When interviewed by a representative of The Evening News Chief Fraser said, "I know nothing whatever of the conditions existing in the fire department, but will sift the matter to the bottom and hear all sides before taking action."

Lankford's Statement

Chief Lankford, after a lengthy conference with V. B. Stone, city manager and Chief Fraser stated when asked if he intended to hand in his resignation, "There is no use of doing that. I am relieved from command and Chief Fraser is head of the department." Just what steps he will take to justify his actions in the conduct of the department he has not yet decided. He was not aware that the council intended to take this step. (Continued on page 7)

NEW PRICE BOOST SENDS 'GAS' TO 20 CENT LEVEL

General Increase in California Oil Costs Comes as Decline in Production Brings Threat of Shortage

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Gasoline continued its meteoric rise today when service station prices here went to 18 cents with two cents state tax making the price to consumers 20 cents. This was the third 2 cent jump per gallon since "gas" touched "low" at 14 cents early in the summer of 1923.

The first announcement of the price increase came from the Standard Oil company of California, which followed in the lead of the Standard Oil company of Indiana and was coincident with a general increase in the price of California oil.

Advances in the price of oil effective today range from 15 cents per barrel for oil of 35 degrees gravity and upwards. The last increase was one of the largest made in some time.

Predict More Advances

The price jumps may not be ended, it was said, in well informed circles today. Declining production was said to form the basis for the increased oil and gasoline prices. Los Angeles reported that the Santa Fe field production had declined to 125,000 barrels a day and with congressional action expected shortly to force a shutdown of naval reserve production, an oil shortage is feared.

NAVAL BASE URGED FOR ALAMEDA

National Necessity, Asserts Admiral Eberle, Giving Expert Testimony

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The long fight of the navy to build a Pacific coast naval base at Alameda, in San Francisco bay, was resumed today before the House naval affairs committee.

"I regard the Alameda base as a national necessity," said Admiral Eberle, chief of naval operations. "It is essential to national security. It would afford protection to our crippled ships in time of war. It is the military strategic location."

"It is needed because of its shore facilities, in which we are lacking."

Support Testimony

Secretary of the Navy Denby and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt will support the testimony of Admiral Eberle.

Advantages of Mare island as a base, strategically and economically, will be pressed by Congressman Curry of Sacramento; Commander C. C. Stanworth, Captain D. W. Knox, Captain Charles Conrad, Assistant Director of the Budget Reed and Captain Leonard Cox of Sacramento.

NEW INQUIRY ON LEASING PLANNED

Questioning Stock Brokers Expected to Bring Out More Sensations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Senate investigation of stock market operations in connection with the lease of Teapot Dome oil reserve to Harry F. Sinclair struck a snag today when Samuel Ungerleider, Cleveland stock broker, failed to answer a summons to appear before the public lands committee.

When Ungerleider failed to answer this morning when his name was called, the committee adjourned until Thursday.

Makes Appearance

After the committee adjourned, Ungerleider arrived in the committee room. He said he was under the impression that the meeting was not until 10:30 o'clock. The committee met at 10 o'clock. Ungerleider went to Lenroot's office to explain. He declared he had with him all books requested by the committee.

Additional subpoenas were issued today for Guy Stevens and Thomas Lee of New York, representing the Association of Petroleum Producers in Mexico and the National Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico.

Committee members admitted that the line of questioning of stock brokers may reveal sensational news of amazing character. Senator Robinson, Democrat, of Kansas, served formal notice today that he would demand action Thursday upon his resolution directing President Coolidge to request the immediate resignation of Secretary of the Navy Denby.

Expect Stockbrokers to Make Further Revelations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—New and startling revelations in the naval oil scandal were promised as the Senate public lands committee today began an examination of officials of leading stock brokerage firms in New York, Cleveland and Washington.

If the evidence unearthed is such as expected on the basis of private information, additional high governmental officers may be caught in the oil reserve "mess."

Information has been called to the attention of the committee (Continued on page 4)

SEVEN DIE FROM POISONED BEANS

Home Canned Food May Take More Lives In Botulinus Attack

ALBANY, Ore., Feb. 5.—With the deaths early today of Reinhold Gerber and Werner Yunker, aged 10, the toll taken by botulinus poison from eating home-canned beans here Saturday has mounted to seven with three more reported to be dying.

Mrs. Reinhold Gerber, at whose home the fatal dinner was served, is reported to be out of danger, as is also two-year-old Margaret Gerbig, who is still fed by bottle, and it is expected she will escape entirely the poisonous food.

The death of 13-months-old Esther Gerbig, who is believed to have become infected with the poison through nursing, is said to be only a matter of a few hours. Paul Gerbig and a 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Ruhling are now expected to recover.

Venizelos' Policies Guide Greek Premier

ATHENS, Feb. 5.—Premier Kafandaridis of Greece will carry out the policies of former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos, especially in regard to the dynasty question, it was announced today. Venizelos favored the establishing of a republic in Greece, but opposed the abolition of the dynasty without a national plebiscite. After the session of the national assembly today, Deputy Isouli and Pangalos came to blows.

German Flag In Washington At Full Staff

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—While the diplomatic colony half-masted their flags today, out of respect to Woodrow Wilson, the flag over the German embassy continued to fly at full staff. Members of the embassy staff said it remained at full mast in accordance with orders from the government at Berlin. The flag was later lowered entirely.

Telephone inquiry at the embassy derived the reply that the Berlin government considered America's wartime president "a private citizen" for whom no special honors need be paid and consequently the flag on the embassy was not half masted as were all the other flags in the capital. The incident caused some unpleasant comment in government circles.

MANY CITIES STRUCK BY BLIZZARD

Traffic Halted and Wires Snap; Passenger Train Reported Snowbound

BULLETIN

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 6.—

Three persons were dead and four seriously injured here today as the result of a cyclone which struck the home of the Rev. Wallace Carpenter. All victims were members of the Carpenter family. The dead: Mrs. Dora Carpenter and two sons, Clarence, 17, and Earl, 15. Three other boys and a girl were seriously injured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—

The great middle western storm which yesterday held Nebraska and the Dakotas in its grip, shattering trans-continental communication, today had moved eastward and completely isolated Chicago. All forms of wire service into the Windy City were down. Extent of the damage in the Great Lakes district was not reported because of the crippled communication.

Telephone company leased wire circuits were routed circuitously today to reach around the storm area. International News Service, New York office, was linked directly with San Francisco via Atlanta and other southern cities instead of the usual direct routing through Chicago.

Linemen Battle Sleet

Sleet, the worst foe of telegraph wires, was responsible, telephone and telegraph companies said, for the absence of communication throughout the Chicago areas. Wires snapped (Continued on page 7)

LAST TRIBUTE TO WILSON ON RADIO

Services at Cathedral To Be Broadcasted; Family Objects to Pomp

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Guns on all flagships of the navy and at all naval shore stations will fire at one hour intervals, beginning at sunrise tomorrow and continue until sundown in honor of Woodrow Wilson, according to orders issued today by Secretary of the Navy Denby. All navy flags will remain at half mast thirty days.

Without pomp, without a display of national sorrow, without ostentation, Woodrow Wilson will be buried tomorrow. The funeral services will be held where he died—in his residence. The United States' leader in the World War will be buried as a "private citizen."

Members of his family absolutely refused to permit any "display" at the services. Yet thousands of people will line the streets and pay tribute as the body of the ex-president is taken from the modest home to the imposing national cathedral where the remains will be put to rest.

Services by Radio

It was announced today that the funeral services at the cathedral tomorrow would be broadcast by radio.

President Coolidge today ordered all government departments to cease work at 12:30 p. m. tomorrow out of respect to Mr. Wilson.

The house will be in recess tomorrow as a further mark of respect to the late ex-President Wilson. Unanimous consent for the adjournment from today to Thursday was obtained by Republican Leader Longworth, shortly after the House met today.

Simple Ceremonies To Mark Burial of Wilson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Woodrow Wilson is to be buried tomorrow exactly as he wished—a private citizen for whom there should be no ostentation, no (Continued on page 7)

Boy Hurt by Crocker Auto Is Recovering

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Leonard Pearce, 16, is recovering today from painful injuries suffered when the bicycle he was riding was struck by the private automobile of Mrs. Templeton Crocker, wife of the noted millionaire. The machine was driven by Mrs. Crocker's chauffeur, Charles West, who picked up the lad and rushed him to the emergency hospital. progress.

LOCK PEOPLE IN BANK VAULT, GET $7000

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Six employees and depositors of the Seventh and Market street branch of the Bank of Italy were held up and locked in the bank's vault today by three bandits who then looted the institution of $7000, escaping in a waiting automobile driven by a fourth bandit who waited outside. The alarm was given by a janitor who eluded the bandits by hiding in a closet. He released the imprisoned employees and depositors.

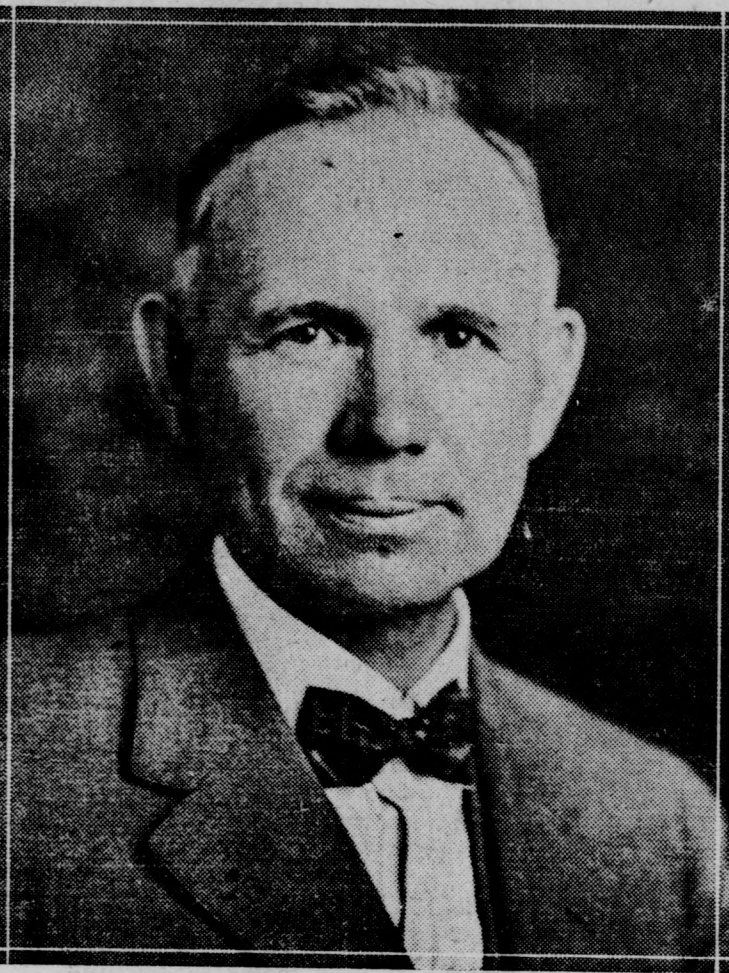

TWO KILLED, 30 HURT IN GRADE CRASH

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Two men were killed and thirty men and women hurt, some dangerously, when an east bound Indiana Harbor belt freight train crashed today into a Chicago street car at a grade crossing. The dead as identified by police were: William Hebel, 26, and an unidentified man about 35 years old. The injured all were given emergency treatment under police direction, after which some were sent home and others continued on their way to work.

STATE-WIDE GASOLINE PROBE NOW LOOMS

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5.—State-wide investigation of the gasoline situation loomed today on the heels of a general increase of 2 cents a gallon. The retail price is now 19 cents, representing a 4 cent per gallon increase in less than two weeks. Business firms operating a large number of trucks, organizations interested in the public welfare and motorists generally expressed indignation when they read the Standard Oil company of California's announcement that the boost would go into effect immediately. That steps would be taken to call the oil companies to an accounting was expressed on all sides.

DANIEL CAMPBELL, pioneer resident of Glendale, prominent banker and popular throughout the city, who was today chosen a member of the Glendale City Council. Mr. Campbell's wife is president of the Tuesday Afternoon club.

DANIEL CAMPBELL IDEAL MAN FOR CITY COUNCIL

Pioneer Resident of City, Large Property Holder, Mature of Judgment, Safe, Popular; Excellent Appointment

Another real honor, after almost a quarter of a century residence in Glendale, was conferred today on Daniel Campbell, when he was chosen a member of the Glendale City Council, to succeed W. A. Horn, recently resigned.

It would be difficult to find a Glendanian who is better qualified to tell just why Glendale is "The Fastest Growing City in the United States," than "Dan" Campbell. And it would be just as difficult to find a man better qualified to serve the city on the council.

Born in the north of Ireland, Mr. Campbell came to America at an early age, and when he and his bride came to California twenty-five or more years ago Glendale was but a struggling little village.

The Campbells lived for a short time in Los Angeles, and then came out into the San Fernando valley and built a new home, "Ard Eevin," in the heart of beautiful foothill acreage. They are still living in this home, and the beautiful acreage is now one of the most beautiful residential sections of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and their family of two sons and a daughter, have countless friends in Glendale and other parts of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have taken active and prominent parts in social, fraternal, religious and civic affairs.

On School Board

For several years Mr. Campbell was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Glendale Union High school, lending support to every project for the advancement of this educational activity of the city's life.

He is a past commander of Glendale Commandery, No. 53, Knights Templar, and a past worthy patron of Glen Eyrle, Eastern Star chapter. He is also past master of Unity Lodge, F. & A. M. He is a member of the Glendale Presbyterian church.

Prominent Banker

Present activities of Mr. Campbell are the duties of president of the Community Savings & Commercial Bank on San Fernando road, soon to move into a new building at the southwest corner of South Brand boulevard and San Fernando road; and managing Campbell Heights, the exclusive subdivision near their foothill home.

SELECTION IS UNANIMOUS AT BOARD MEETING

Pioneer Resident Urged By Many Friends to Give Valuable Services

Daniel Campbell, pioneer resident of Glendale, one of the city's leading bankers and the owner of a large amount of real estate in the city, was chosen unanimously this morning by members of the City Council to serve until the next general municipal election, vice Councilman W. A. Horn, who resigned his position on the council last Friday.

The resignation of Councilman Horn was unanimously accepted, on motion of Councilman Asa Hall, seconded by Councilman C. E. Kimlin.

In appointing Mr. Campbell to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mr. Horn, the City Council has followed the provisions of the Glendale city charter, which states that such vacancy shall be filled by the majority vote of the remaining members of the council.

Nominated by Mayor

Calling Councilman Davis to the chair, Mayor Spencer Robinson nominated Mr. Campbell for the vacancy. The nomination was seconded by Councilman Kimlin, and on the roll call all the members voted in favor of Mr. Campbell's appointment, no other candidate being mentioned.

Inasmuch as Mr. Campbell had not been informed of the intended action of the City Council, V. B. Stone, city manager, was asked to communicate with him, so that he might attend the meeting and take the required oath of office.

At noon Mr. Campbell could not be found. The last message the City Council had from him was to the effect that he was on his way to the City Hall from Ard Eevin, his residence in the northwest section.

The council held up its adjournment to wait for him and to receive his statement as to whether he would accept the position to which he had been nominated.

Well Fitted for Place

Individual members of the City Council declared that Mr. Campbell would, in their opinion, form a distinct asset to the city administration, as his long residence in Glendale and his close association with every branch of local business has admirably fitted him to aid in the management of the city's affairs.

After waiting until after 12 o'clock the council adjourned without hearing any further from Mr. Campbell. Consequently no (Continued on page 7)

CONVICTS DIE IN DASH FROM JAIL

Three Desperadoes Slain By Posse After Killing Of Prison Guard

JEFFERSON CITY, Ind., Feb. 5.—A hail of bullets from the guns of a posse brought to a tragic close near here late last night the escape of the three state penitentiary convicts who got away eighteen hours before, after killing James Hart, 62-year-old guard. Armed only with a revolver taken from the slain guard, and defiant to the end, the fugitives met their death in a haystack in which they sought refuge on the farm of John Seepker, five miles southeast of here.

Three Desperadoes

The three convicts, who were known as "bad" men, were Frank Delcore, who was serving forty-five years for murder; Miles Thomas, serving eight years for burglary; and Jack McFall of Kansas City, Mo., who was in for ten years for highway robbery.

The posse got a tip from a dairyman that he believed the men were hiding in one of his barns. Fresh snow had fallen and the posse traced the men two miles to the haystack, where one of the fugitives, armed with a revolver, opened fire on the officers.

VERDICT FOR CHANDLER

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 5.—The jury in the Debouchel-Chandler case today returned a verdict in favor of the defendant after a short deliberation. Mrs. Onezeta Debouchel, New Orleans society leader, filed the suit against Asa G. Chandler, aged Atlanta capitalist, charging breach of promise.

Social Events

Morning Wedding

Rev. Michael Galvin was the officiant this morning, Tuesday, February 5, 1924, at the marriage of Miss Gertrude Gannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gannon of 318 West Colorado St., to Myrtle George Budd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery of 415 South Central Ave. The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock at the Holy Family Catholic church and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Egyptian Village.

Before the ceremony the bride and groom were accompanied by a quartet of four young men. The wedding march was played by the church organist.

For her marriage Miss Gannon chose a beautiful gown of lace and Georgette crepe in a soft beige shade, worn with lace hat in harmonizing color. She carried a shower of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Alberta Bowling, who attended as maid of honor, wore a taffeta in the same shade of beige as the bride's gown. She wore a hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Gannon's brother, Joseph Gannon, attended Mr. Budd as best man.

From the church the bridal party and relatives and a small group of close friends motored to the Egyptian Village for the bridal breakfast.

The bridal table was most beautifully decorated with the bride's cake as a special feature. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Budd, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gannon, Miss Alberta Bowling, Joseph Gannon, Genevieve Gannon, James Gannon, Rev. Michael Galvin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Hurst, Misses Reba Phillips and Eunice Deer, and Lawrence Fikes.

The wedding is of wide interest in Glendale, for both young people and their families are well known. The Gannon family came to Glendale three years ago from Victor, Iowa, and Mrs. Budd attended and graduated from the Glendale Union High school. Mr. Budd is well known in Los Angeles, where he is connected with the Title Insurance company, and in Glendale, where his mother, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, is prominent in church and social affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Budd were the recipients of countless beautiful gifts, among them being an electric coffee percolator with silver cream pitcher and sugar bowl from the Glendale Realty company, with which Mrs. Budd's father is associated.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Budd will be at home after February 20 at 526 West Vine street.

Among the many pre-nuptial honors given the young couple was a theatre party and dinner given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery. They were hosts at a theatre party to see "The Fool" in Los Angeles, and later motored to their home on South Central avenue, Glendale, for a four-course dinner.

Pink and white were the colors used by Mrs. Montgomery for the dinner appointments, carnations and sweet peas being the flowers used. Little figures of brides used the place cards and cunning traveling bags filled with rice were favors. Candles in silver holders with soft pink shades were other features of the table decoration.

Places were marked for Miss Gertrude Gannon, Myrtle George Budd, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gannon, Miss Alberta Bowling, Joseph Gannon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Hurst of Huntington Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery.

Farewell Dinner

The departure today of E. I. Bates for his home in Grand Rapids, Michigan was the inspiring Sunday for a bountiful dinner at the D. G. Bates home in Sycamore grove, and brought to the close a delightful reunion of seven remaining members of a family of nine at the D. G. and C. H. Bates home in the canyon.

Those who enjoyed the dinner and horseshoe tournament were E. I. Bates of Grand Rapids, Mich., S. N. Bates and G. A. Bates and family of Long Beach; Mrs. M. C. Van Den Berg of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Edith Boothby of Cobleville, Mich.; and members of the D. G. and C. H. Bates families.

Old Friends Meet

Mrs. H. H. Wiebe of 438 Burchett street, entertained informally Sunday afternoon a group of friends all former students of Rebeah College, in Newton, Kansas.

Those present were the Misses Frieda Kranz, Mollie Becker, Lydia Dirts, Helen Klassen, Helen Klassen of the Bible Institute, Los Angeles and Misses Edna Nickelson and Linda Goertz of Glendale.

Mothers' Class

The members of the Young Mothers' class of the Glendale Presbyterian church will meet at the church on Wednesday afternoon, February 6, at 3 o'clock, for an informal social affair.

A program has been arranged for presentation and refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to all young mothers of Glendale who are not members of a Glendale church to attend.

Meet February 13

Glendale War Mothers are to meet Wednesday, February 13, at the Glendale Presbyterian church for a regular meeting, according to Mrs. Josephine Cowlin, president.

Church Women

Women of the missionary society of the Central Christian church are to meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church bungalow for a program arranged by Mrs. A. K. Crawford. Mrs. Crawford states that "European Immigrants in America" will be the subject for study and discussion.

Preliminary to the afternoon meeting the executive board will meet at 11 o'clock in the morning in the bungalow. Each one is asked to bring lunch for the noon hour.

At Hayward Home

The home of Mrs. E. W. Hayward, 307 North Kenwood street was the scene of an enjoyable affair Monday night when she entertained the members of the American Legion Auxiliary with a Valentine party in honor of the legion.

The rooms of the Hayward home were artistically decorated for the occasion in a red and white color scheme. A profusion of red carnations were used and red hearts and other Valentine motifs added to the beauty of the decorations.

Proceeding the social evening a short business session was held with the newly elected president, Mrs. E. W. Gilliland, in charge. At this time the secretary, Mrs. Mitchell Frug, tendered her resignation.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was the mailing of Valentines by the twenty guests present in a cleverly arranged postoffice decorated with a profusion of hearts and cupid.

Mrs. Nell Few favored those present with two readings. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Entertainers Class

Members of the Philathea class of the First Methodist church will meet tonight, Tuesday, February 5, at the home of the Misses Eunice and Agnes Caldwell, 326 West Wilson avenue. The meeting will convene at 5:30 o'clock, when a cafeteria supper will be served, followed by a short business session.

The change in the time of the meeting was made in order that all business could be transacted and dispensed with in time for the members to attend the revival services being held this week at the church. The president, Miss Lois Percy, who will be in charge of the meeting tonight, urges all members to make a special effort to be in attendance.

Dance Wednesday

Glendale War Mothers are to entertain with a dance tomorrow night, Wednesday, February 6, at 8 o'clock, in North Orange street at 8 o'clock, it is announced.

The affair which is to be an apron and overall dance, is sure to prove to be one of the most enjoyable informal dances given by the Players. The Community Players' orchestra will furnish the music for the evening.

Mrs. Nanno Woods, director, extends a cordial invitation to all members and their friends to attend.

Joins Madrigals

Mrs. Southworth was received as an active member at the meeting yesterday of the Madrigal club at the Congregational church. Announcement that Mrs. Helen McMullin's team in the recent membership drive is to entertain the club at a Valentine party February 13, at the home of Mrs. H. L. Bullinger, at 205 North Central avenue.

Mrs. L. K. Markey has been chosen chairman of the voice committee to succeed Mrs. Charles Meadows, who is on leave of absence.

Church Women

Women of the missionary society of the Central Christian church are to meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church bungalow for a program arranged by Mrs. A. K. Crawford. Mrs. Crawford states that "European Immigrants in America" will be the subject for study and discussion.

Preliminary to the afternoon meeting the executive board will meet at 11 o'clock in the morning in the bungalow. Each one is asked to bring lunch for the noon hour.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

MRS. CHARLOTTE CADY

Funeral services for Mrs. Charlotte Cady were held yesterday afternoon, Monday, February 4, 1924, in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park. Rev. C. M. Caldwell, pastor of the Congregational church, officiated at the service.

Mrs. Cady had a wide circle of friends in Glendale and other southern California cities. Among the many friends who came from out of town to pay final tribute to their friend were Mrs. Rebecca Durell and Philip Durell of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stevens and daughter Ada, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson and daughter Eva, Mrs. Stephens, Frank Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Menzies and daughter Verna and Mrs. Mary Wilmerman of Venice; Mrs. Edna Wardell of Santa Monica; Mrs. Lena Robertson, Mrs. Europa Cox, Mrs. Ora Cochran, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Sarah Watson, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Carl Millerby, Will Webster, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Morrissey, Miss Emma Coleman, of Pasadena; Dr. Clara Hardy of Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mercer, Mrs. Bertha Tate, of Eagle Rock; C. F. Morton of La Canada; Mrs. Susana Amrine of Pasadena; Mrs. and Mrs. Lloyd Webster of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swiler, Mrs. Anne Swiler of Pasadena.

The L. G. Seavern Undertaking company were directors.

PATRICK J. HICKEY

The body of Patrick J. Hickey, who died February 2, 1924, was shipped to Alliance, Ohio, for interment. The Kiefer & Eyerick Undertaking company was in charge.

California Is Haven For Fleeing Fugitives

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—Showing that fugitives from other states are seeking respite in California from the law in growing numbers, C. F. Merrill, chief of the State Bureau of Criminal Identification, has made public figures indicating that requests to arrest persons charged with extraditable offenses have increased almost 100 per cent within five years.

In 1919 such requests numbered 8,872. In 1923 no less than 15,177 such requests were received at the state office, Merrill said.

British Golfers Win From American Foes

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Arthur Havers and James Ockenden, British professional golfers, were returned winners in their last Pacific coast match when they defeated Jack Neville and Harold Clark at the San Francisco Golf and Country club course, 5 and 4.

With Mrs. Kille

Mrs. F. W. Kille, secretary, was hostess to the Glendale Auxiliary of the Children's Hospital society, Monday afternoon at her home, 465 Oak street.

Previous to the meeting Mrs. Kille entertained Mrs. Ernest J. Morgan, president of the auxiliary, at luncheon. These two, who have devoted themselves so freely to the relief of the suffering of the little ones, made plans for future activities.

During the business session a letter from the Hospital society was read announcing that a Glendale crib has been established, also thanking the auxiliary for the Christmas contributions which included a generous contribution from the Tropic Presbyterian Sunday school, which was not published before.

Mrs. Morgan announced that the reports for the year will show about 100 new garments have been made by the Glendale society.

Mrs. Thomas McDougal of Chapter C. J. P. E. O. was present and took out a $5.00 associate membership for the chapter and also took a supply of sewing for home work.

Announcement relative to the society's annual salvage day, February 12, was made. The truck will be out Saturday, February 9 and Mrs. Morgan hopes that all having salvage will send it to her home, 1124 South Central avenue, before that time. Wearing apparel, suits, dresses and coats are especially desired.

Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. E. W. Gilliland was hostess on Friday to a number of friends when she entertained with an attractively appointed Valentine bridge luncheon.

The Gilliland home was artistically arranged, carrying out the Valentine motif. Dainty place cards in red and white, bon bon baskets and other luncheon table appointments were used.

After a delicious 1 o'clock luncheon the afternoon was devoted to playing bridge.

Those present included Mesdames W. L. Andrews, Homer Lockwood, Fred Abbey, A. J. Maxwell, Wolfe, Jack Boetner and Charles Jones.

Doran P.-T. A.

The Doran Street Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. Clark Johnson is president, will meet at the school house tomorrow, Wednesday, February 6, at 3:15, it is announced.

The annual fathers' night and founders' day program has been postponed another month on account of the Parent-Teacher federation founders' day program to be presented this month.

Mrs. Johnson is very anxious that all members be present at the meeting tomorrow afternoon.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

"The Man Life Passed By" continues to show at the Glendale theatre, where the strength of the story and the masterful direction of Victor Schertzinger is thrilling audiences. In the cast are Jane Bryan, Myrtle Stedman and Ben Lyon. It is an unforgettable exposure of the excesses of the younger generation.

Combining all the popular ingredients of the photoplay, "The Man Life Passed By" welds them into a perfect punch-drama that has the spectator "on edge" constantly, bringing a lump in his throat one minute, and the next sending him into an ecstasy of excitement over a thrilling fight or a tense scene such as the picture abounds in.

The story contains a bevy of beautiful girls, adding much to the zest. It was produced by Metro.

THE GATEWAY

"Flaming Youth" shown at the Gateway theatre for the last times today, where it has astounded with its frankness. In the cast are such notables as Milton Sills, Elliott Dexter, Sylvia Breamer, Myrtle Stedman and Ben Lyon. It is an unforgettable exposure of the excesses of the younger generation.

Many a mother who sees "Flaming Youth" must feel anxious for her daughter. Cigarettes, cocktails and jazz vie with white kisses, red kisses, rolled-down hose, "petting" parties and flapperism in general, in this vivid narrative of pleasure-mad daughters and dangerous young men.

"Flaming Youth" was published by Boni & Liverwright, under the pen name, "Warner Fabian." No one knows the real name of the author, said to be one of the most famous in America.

Patrons of Emerson School Entertained

A large company of patrons and friends of the Emerson School of Self-Expression were entertained last night at the school on South Glendale avenue. The guests and Adele Lloyd, who acted as impresario, announced the program.

Those taking part in the program were Harriet Striker, Jean E. Haight, Evelyn Peebles, Bernice Gardner, Frances Machtoff, Charles Machtoff, Charles Sawhill, Robert Rhodes, Elizabeth Bessie, Vera Mercer, Miss Walsh, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Murphy.

LA CRESCENTA SATAN ENLIVENS FIRE FUND BALL

Horns, Hoofs, Spiked Tail
And Red Flames Shown
At Benefit Dance

The sheet and pillow case dance given on Saturday night for the benefit of the community fire fund was a howling success. Under the able management of Mrs. A. F. Hopkins of the Montrose Chamber of Commerce, assisted by members of the entertainment committee of the La Crescenta Improvement association, the affair cleared over $40 for the fire fund.

Entering the patio of the school house one was accosted by ghostly forms who flitted hither and yon, no word passing from their lips.

Inside the hall the dim lights cast eerie shadows over the white figures, till 9 p. m., then—darkness prevailed, the crash of thunder was heard while weird, ghostly lights played over the drawn curtains of the stage.

Suddenly, with a roar as from the depths, the curtains parted and the very evil one himself appeared in mortal form, holding aloft in his hands flaming torches, which provided the only light in the hall. His satanic majesty averted everyone into silence as he circled the hall in a fantastic dance. Finally his torches sputtered, died, and the devil returned to his haunts, after which everyone unmasked and dancing was resumed.

Delicious refreshments consisting of punch, sandwiches, cake and coffee, were served by Mrs. A. F. Hopkins, assisted by Mesdames S. B. Young and Thomas Brown. A wonderful cake donated by the Montrose Bakery was raffled off, being won by Mrs. Louise Erwin of Michigan avenue, who declares it the best she has ever had from a bakery.

Plays the Devil
Arthur Swain of Sparr Heights impersonated satan with a truly remarkable costume, with horns, bat wings and all other devilish trimmings. Mr. Mead, well known business man of Montrose, had charge of the gate receipts.

The Chamber of Commerce entertainment committee, through its chairman, Mrs. A. F. Hopkins, wishes to thank all who made donations or assisted in any way, among them being T. S. Brown, chairman of the La Crescenta Improvement association.

A birthday dinner in honor of John T. Leur off Hoising avenue was given at his home on Sunday, the guest of honor from out of town being Monsignor Tonello of Edendale. Other guests were Mrs. Mary Leur, mother of John T. Leur; his brothers, Frank, Albert, Anthony, Joe, and his sister, Mary Leur; also Fred Mais, all of

FORMER OFFICERS IN ELKS CHAIRS

Past Exalted Rulers Conduct Lodge Ceremonies In Annual Event

Last night's weekly assemblage of Elks at the Glendale lodge, No. 1289, on East Harvard street, was an unusually jovial affair, reports Secretary Willis M. Kimball, being the annual meeting presided over by past exalted rulers, as prescribed by the grand lodge. More than 400 were in attendance.

Excellent music was furnished by the Orpheus Four of Los Angeles. A feature of the meeting is that nominations for the March election of officers were received. Other nominations will be received at each meeting in February, Mr. Kimball states.

The past exalted rulers who last night assumed for an hour or so the reins of government in the local lodge drew their positions by lot, with the following results.

Acting Officers
Stephen C. Packer, acting exalted ruler; John H. Fanset, acting esteemed leading knight; Arthur H. Dibbern, acting esteemed loyal knight; Cameron D. Thom, acting esteemed lecturing knight; Peter L. Ferry, acting chaplain; Albert D. Pearce, acting esquire; Alfred F. Priest, acting inner guard; and Bert P. Woodard, acting tyler.

In this way many pleasant associations and memories were revived, the custom being one to which Elks look forward each year with keenest enthusiasm. Mr. Kimball declares

Following the program, the members adjourned to the dining room, where a buffet supper was enjoyed.

X-Ray Succeeds Tar Method of Scalp Cure

ATHENS, Feb. 5.—Favus sufferers breathed a sigh of relief on learning the disease can now be treated by X-ray.

Hitherto, favus—a widely prevalent scalp disease caused by uncleanliness and filth—was treated by coating the scalp with tar. This was allowed to remain until it dried and hardened. It was then pulled off, taking a liberal quantity of hair with it. The process was excruciatingly painful.

The X-ray treatment was discovered by Near East Relief physicians.

It has been successfully applied in a large number of cases.

FAITH IS THEME OF KERR SERMON

Evangelists Drawing Crowds
Nightly to Special
Church Services

The evangelistic services which are being conducted every night this week at the First Methodist church by the Kerr brothers, evangelists, are being very well attended. Each night the church is nearly filled to its full capacity.

Last night's meeting opened at 7:30 o'clock with a song service. This was followed by two gospel duets rendered with wonderful expression by the Kerr brothers.

The sermon delivered last night was an earnest appeal for faith on the part of church members. Mr. Kerr took as his text, Matthew 17-20: "Verily I say unto you, if ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, remove hence to yonder place and it shall remove and nothing shall be impossible to you."

The speaker said, "This is one of the neglected texts of the Bible. This great promise of the Lord, hardly ever is it preached from the pulpit and yet how important to our work is faith. To remove these mountains that stand in our way. Some time ago I was greatly impressed by reading this text. I looked it up in the commentaries and one writer says, 'if we use faith it will grow.' Another writer explains the text as one having a growing and thriving faith."

Work Through Church

"After reading these comments I was more than ever convinced that this faith of my text is a mighty good thing to have, for here are great mountains to be moved out of the way of our work here in Glendale. The biggest and best way today to exercise this faith is the church. But before this power is given to the church it must be willing to meet the conditions. The conditions are to be separated from the world—to be obedient. Noah and Abraham were illustrations or examples of faith and obedience."

"The mountains that must be removed in Glendale are indifference and unbelief. But by faith they will both disappear."

Tonight will be Women's Night. All the women of Glendale are urged to be present. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock with a song service, followed by a special musical program which has been arranged for this occasion.

These evangelistic services are conducted every night in the week with the exception of Saturday night and will continue until March 2. Each night something special is presented during the musical program and the meetings every night are made not only interesting but beneficial.

HELP FOR BANKS, FARMERS URGED

Coolidge Promises Federal Aid; Outlines Policy
At Conference

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—President Coolidge has called upon the people of the great agricultural northwest to come to the rescue of their banking and farming interests, and promised the aid and cooperation of the federal government to save the situation.

Addressing a conference of leading representatives of these vital national interests in the northwest, the president declared that reconstruction, not charity, was the policy of the government in providing financial rehabilitation for the wheat country, and outlined a program of remedial measures designed to enable the farmer to "work out his future with the help of funds advanced by the government."

Steps to be taken follow:
First—Enactment of the Norbeck-Burness bill providing an appropriation for the purpose of promoting the diversification of agriculture in certain sections of the country which heretofore have been devoted primarily to the production of wheat, and,
Would Advance Money

Second—Authorizing the war finance corporation to make advances for agricultural purposes at the end of the present calendar year.

The president said the fund created by the bill now pending in congress could be used to make loans to wheat farmers to enable them to purchase livestock and poultry, thus equipping their farms for dairying and general farming.

"It should not be loaned to men who have not the temperament, the experience or the industry necessary for successful farming," Mr. Coolidge declared.

"It is designed to help those only who can give reasonable assurance that they will succeed. Moreover, government aid in this connection must be predicated upon full co-operation of creditors of the farmers."

Houses built of wood made from bagasse, the waste from sugar cane, are said to resist heat in the summer and cold in the winter.

TEACH CHILDREN HOME ECONOMICS

Boys and Girls Will Enter Classes Planned by Coker & Taylor

Training in culinary art ought to begin at an early age, is the theory advanced by Mrs. Alice Curtis, who presides over the home economics department at the Coker & Taylor store at 209 South Brand boulevard, and to carry out this theory she is to open a class for Glendale children, both boys and girls.

This children's cooking class is to meet at 9 o'clock every Saturday morning in the store's laboratory, and the first meeting will be Saturday morning, February 23. Mrs. Curtis has not decided the length of time for the lessons but says they will be just the right length to sustain the children's interest.

Glendale children desirous of attending are asked to register at the Coker & Taylor store. Those who have already registered are Evelyn Plunkett, Rhoda Covert, Lila, Florence and Clara Swanson, Leone Rochold, Ruth White, Myron West, Lois Merriken, Frank White, Jr., and Milliner Clarie.

Mrs. Curtis conducts classes for adults at 2 o'clock on Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

BURBANK

ADD FIREMEN TO BURBANK FORCE

Additional Equipment Also Ordered by Board of City Trustees

The Burbank board of trustees voted at their last meeting to add two firemen to the payroll of the local fire department, bringing the total up to four, which allows two men to be on duty at all times.

Until the addition just made, the city had been depending upon no greater a fire fighting personnel with a population of 10,000 than it had three years ago, when only 3000 people lived here.

Additional equipment was also authorized by the trustees. The new men will receive salaries of $125 a month for the first three months and $150 a month thereafter.

Fire Chief Davis feels that one disastrous fire might have cost more than the salaries the two men will receive. He states that appointments have not yet been made.

Song Limit February 26
Songs long and songs short winging into contest headquarters in a steady stream, reports F. S. Webster, city clerk. The contest is being conducted by the board of trustees and will close February 26, he says.

The contest is open to the world, Mr. Webster points out, and a $25 prize attaches to the winning number, in addition to the wide publicity it and its fortunate parent will receive.

Other conditions include sending in any number of songs the contestants desire to submit, the stipulation being to write on one side of the paper only, signing no name to the song but placing name and address in a separate envelope and enclosing same with song to the contest committee, to be mailed or delivered to Mr. Webster on or before the closing date.

Charlesville Returns
Returning from the United States Chamber of Commerce meeting in San Francisco, J. W. Charlesville, manager of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, brings with him added enthusiasm for lifting Burbank to the position it should occupy as a potential industrial city of importance.

The gathering was honored by the presence of Julius H. Barnes, president, and John H. Fahy, vice-president, he says, both of whom gave inspiring addresses. "One never returns from the northern part of the state but what he realizes more than ever the superior facilities for development and prosperity with which nature has endowed southern California, and particularly the San Fernando valley," says Mr. Charlesville. "Burbank enjoys a wonderful strategic position. All we need is vision to achieve a great city here."

Club Plans to Stage
All-Canadian Program

An all-Canadian program is to be enjoyed Thursday night by Canadian club members and guests, meeting in the K. P. hall on South Brand boulevard. The program will begin at 8 o'clock. There will be a baritone solo by James Cranney of Lethbridge, Ontario; reading by Miss Patterson of Hamilton, Ontario; Glendale booster song, composed and played by Mrs. S. S. Gilhuly of Smith's Falls, Ontario; quartet, Messrs. Munro, Wight, Read and Campbell.

Song and dance by Miss Caroline Cantanwine of Montreal, Canada; bass solo by Mr. Lawson of Niagara Falls; sol by Mrs. Smith of Vancouver; trio, violin, flute and piano, by Messrs. Rushton, Eby and Mrs. Brode, all of Toronto; tenor solo by John Wight of Toronto; soprano solo by Mrs. Botsford of Toronto; baritone solo by James Cranney; address by W. E. Hewitt of Brantford, Ontario.

Clarence A. Wortham's World's Best Shows, showing in Glendale for nine days and nights under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion, opened their engagement yesterday at San Fernando road and Brand boulevard. When at night the lights of the large tented city were turned on, in conjunction with the illumination of the Gateway theatre, this district became one of the most brilliantly lighted in Southern California.

From the fronts of a dozen shows glimmered a maze of lights, as they did from the Ferris wheel, the butterfly, and the eaves of the merry-go-round, all of which are elevated above the other attractions and help to make a city of vast illumination.

Hilton Sisters Here
The outstanding feature of the show are the famous grown-together sisters, Violet and Daisy Hilton, known throughout the world as the San Antonio grown-together girls. They are handsome young women, most attractive. In no way repugnant, they soon became favorites with the patrons, who left to talk about them and their sunny dispositions.

The real wild west of the kind that early California settlers knew, is a big part of the Wortham shows. This show is run by the Tantlingers, born in the Indian country when plenty of antagonistic redskins loitered in the brush. Particularly noticeable in the show is Edith Tantlinger, champion wing shot of the world and protegee of Buffalo Bill. There is also Verne Tantlinger, who succeeded Colonel Cody in shooting from the saddle when the old scout's eyesight began to fail. In addition there is Cy Collins, who was born "somewhere in a prairie schooner," and Lulu Bell Parr, twice champion woman broncho buster of the world.

Other Midway Features
Mrs. Tantlinger is really an outstanding figure in American history. She received many a pointer from Colonel Cody on quick shooting, accuracy in firing, and other tricks with rifle and pistol.

Among the other features on the midway are the Karn family of fat folk; Wilson's monkey circus, Noah's ark, and the jazer, a recent version of a laugh factory. All the shows gave satisfaction last night, there being no objectionable features apparent. With good weather they will add to their reputation in this section of the country.

DIRECTORS HOLD
ANNUAL MEETING

Glendale Research Hospital
In Healthy Condition
Reports Reveal

The report of the directors at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Glendale Research hospital, held last night at Hahn's auditorium, 109 North Brand boulevard, showed the affairs of this organization to be in a very healthy condition. A large majority of the stockholders were present, either in person or by proxy.

Following the report, the entire board was re-elected. Dr. T. C. Young then resigned, owing to pressure of other duties, and Dr. Jean Settles was elected to fill his place.

Shares Held Locally
The report showed that of a total of 192 stockholders, 98 hold less than five shares each and 66 hold five shares each, while only 7 hold more than ten shares each. The great majority of all shares being held by Glendaleans, making the Glendale Research hospital a local institution, conducted by a local board of directors, operated by a local staff of physicians and surgeons, and serving the community as a local asset.

The stockholders were told at last night's meeting of the recent decision by the board of directors to add another wing to the building, at an approximate cost of $10,000, to be paid for out of treasury stock, in order that the institution may follow out the original plan formulated at the time it was founded and thus enter into a period of increased service, with added facilities.

With every room now filled and even the halls occupied at times by cots, it was brought out that such a step was absolutely necessary, if the institution is to be permitted to continue its natural growth. The figures showed that admissions for 1923 totaled 795 cases, of which 541 were surgical, 133 obstetrical, 112 medical, and 9 emergency. Four sets of twins were ushered into the world last year at the Glendale Research hospital.

List of Directors
Following is the re-elected directorate: Harry E. Hall, president; A. L. Baird, secretary-treasurer; Roy L. Kent, Richard M. Brown, and Dr. Jean Settles elected to take the place of Dr. T. C. Young, resigned.

All of the directors made short talks, stressing from one angle or another the fact that the Glendale Research hospital is today a perfectly functioning medical machine and a credit to this city.

Social Hour Follows
Choral Club Meeting

Last night's rehearsal of the Glendale Community Choral club was a delight to all who were present. The first hour was devoted to work on Coleridge Taylor's "Hawatha's Wedding Feast." During the intermission Mrs. C. J. Wiedman entertained with two beautiful contralto solos.

Following the rehearsal, the whole group went into the High school cafeteria where refreshments were served and a social get-acquainted hour was enjoyed. The social program and refreshments were in charge of a committee composed of DeVoine Davidson, Mrs. Roberta Young, Miss Marie Oliver and Miss Martha Eilers.

that one member of the committee itself and a former official who is close to the administration of the late President Harding were "in the know" and profited financially by dealing in Sinclair stock before the announcement of the lease of Teapot Dome to Harry P. Sinclair by ex-Secretary of Interior Fall was made public.

Call Stockholders
Numerous stockholders were summoned to be on hand today, including Carl P. Biggerman of the Chase National bank, New York; Samuel Unglerleider of Cleveland; W. B. Hibbs of Hibbs company, Washington, and James Sloan, former White House secret service men and Washington agent of the Unglerleider company.

The prime object of the meeting today was to determine whether all the brokers for whom subpoenas have been out since last Saturday were ready to testify. After reporting, the committee was expected to excuse them, subject to recall at any time.

Fall's counsel intimated today that he will remain firm in his decision not to answer questions of the committee, basing his chief objections on the grounds that such testimony might incriminate him. The committee is known to be ready to start immediately to compel him to answer on penalty of going to jail.

SIMPLE SERVICES
FOR EX-PRESIDENT

Family Opposes Pomp at Burial; Thousands to Line Highways

pompous display of national sorrow, no state or public ceremonies.

Members of his family made known this wish of the former president today in meeting objections raised in some quarters to the essentially private nature of the final obsequies with which his war-wrecked body will be consigned tomorrow to the keeping of time.

"It was his wish," they said.
And before this unanswerable argument, all objections melted away and the voice of a public and a government ready to do him homage was stifled.

Crowds to Line Streets
But even his own wishes and those of his family cannot entirely shut out the national sorrow that is felt at Woodrow Wilson's passing from the stage of world affairs. It is true, he will be buried as he wished, as a private citizen, but it will be as the most distinguished private citizen in America. Thousands of his friends and followers will line the streets that lead from his modest home to the heights of Mount St. Albans, where, in the towering national cathedral, his body will be laid away to rest.
Other thousands will crowd the cathedral grounds to hear the brief, simple eulogies of commence of the city will be killed and the business of government suspended while his remains are removed from the red brick house where he found the comfort and seclusion that was denied him in higher places. And they will be there not because of any sense of duty, but because they want to be.

Although himself a Presbyterian, the former president was greatly interested in the cathedral project, which is aimed at providing for Washington what Westminster Abbey is to London.

The cathedral site is on Wood-ley road, north and west of the White House and 400 feet above the Potomac. When completed it will have a great central tower that will rise above the dome of the capitol and the Washington monument and will be larger than St. Paul's in London or Notre Dame in Paris. It will have seating space for 5,000 people and standing room for 27,000 more.

All day long there were reverent tributes to Mr. Wilson before the house in which he died, and as on yesterday, messengers came to the crepe draped building with messages from all the world, telling of his greatness and the universal esteem in which he was held.

The government's participation in the obsequies probably will be the slightest that has ever been in the case of a former president.

President to Attend
The cabinet held a short, perfunctory meeting today to make definite arrangements. It is not likely there will be any government dignitaries save the president and Mrs. Coolidge and the chief justice and Mrs. Taft at the home services tomorrow. Very few cards will be issued to the home, and these will go principally to personal friends and associates of Mr. Wilson, without regard to rank or station in life.
Two dozen of these will go to the chief justice and Mrs. Taft, and two dozen to the members of his war cabinet.

At the cathedral services at 3:30 p. m., half an hour after the conclusion of the services at the home, there will be a greater representation at the Bethlehem chapel, which will hold some 500 people. There it will be possible for the officers of the Coolidge cabinet and representatives of the senate and house to pay their respects.

BAY CITY PLANS
SOLEMN TRIBUTE

City Officials, Army, Navy,
To Join in Honoring
Wilson's Memory

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—
While flags on all public buildings were flying at half mast, city officials and officers of the army and navy in San Francisco are making plans to pay solemn tribute to the memory of the late Woodrow Wilson.

When the president visited San Francisco in 1919 on his swing around the country in an effort to win the United States to the League of Nations, he was accorded a great demonstration in this city. A repetition of San Francisco's love for the former leader is expected on the day of the funeral.

Mayor James Rolph, Jr., who has ordered the city's flags to be displayed at half mast until further notice, said plans for San Francisco's memorial service will be made at once.

At naval and army headquarters definite instructions for paying tribute to the former president were being awaited from Washington officials.

A message from secretary of the Navy Denby received at naval headquarters said:

"It is with deep regret that I announce to the naval service the death of ex-President Wilson. The ceremonies to be observed on the day of the funeral will be announced later. On that day colors will be displayed at half mast."

CHICAGO CHIEF IN BLIZZARD'S GRIP

City Insolated as Wires Are Snapped by Weight of Sleet in Storm

suddenly beneath the heavy coating of sleet which accompanied the storm, and while repair crews were busy everywhere, their efforts were to little avail while the storm continued.

Eastern sections were beginning to feel the storm's effects, and several Canadian points were reported isolated from the east.

The Chicago & Northwestern
& Chicago, Milwaukee & St.
Paul railways were the hardest hit carriers. Their lines to the northwest were piled high with snow, ice crusted.

Appeals for Aid
A passenger train stalled near Waupaca, Wis., without water, appealed to Westinghouse station,
K. Y. W., Chicago, for aid. Its message was relayed to railway managers in Chicago and arrangements were made to send relief.

Practically all news service was at a standstill today. There was no communication between Chicago and the east. The Western Union Telegraph company and the American Telegraph & Telephone company reported that their vast network of wires was absolutely out of commission. Telephone lines between Chicago and the Ohio line and snow so deep that repairmen could not get out to work on them were reported.

JONES DELIVERS
WILSON ORATION

Members of Exchange Club
In Five Minute Burst
Of Approval

Two thousand years ago a cross appeared in the little town of Galilee. It appeared small at first, but it has grown with the passing centuries until today its head is lifted into the heavens and the nations of the world find comfort and peace in its shadow, declared Mattison B. Jones, addressing the Exchange Club at its weekly luncheon today in the Egyptian Village in a stirring eulogy of the late Woodrow Wilson.

"The time will come," he continued, "when Woodrow Wilson will be looked upon as one of the world's immortals when you and I are no more. Woodrow Wilson died on the field of honor just as much as did any soldier who laid down his life on the fields of France."

At the close of Mr. Jones' oration the members of the club, had hung breathless on his every word, broke into applause and praise that lasted for fully five minutes, and more than one of those present showed his emotion openly.

Mayor Spencer Robinson, Coun-cilmans Sam Davis, C. E. Kimlin and Asa Hall were among the guests of the club, as was also Secretary E. F. Sanders of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and H. C. Vandewater, city building superintendent.

Fire Chief Lankford
Removed From Office

I believe that I should at least have had a hearing."

Chief Fraser has no intention,
he said, of accepting the position permanently. Who will be his choice to head the firemen he is not prepared to say at this time.

Ten Years of Service
Ten years ago when the growth of the city of Glendale demanded the enlargement of the fire department, which at that time consisted of one man, Chief Harry Miller, the authorities after sifting the applications, finally engaged A. H. Lankford as a driver.
That was on November 7, 1913,
and the fire department was located in the Broadway garage at 721 East Broadway. The entire personnel of the department was the chief and one driver, and the equipment consisted of one truck.

In 1914, due to several more additions to the force, and the volunteer services of many Glendale citizens, additional officers were necessary, and the first driver was appointed assistant chief. One year later, on July 1, 1915, A. H. Lankford was promoted to the position of chief to succeed Harry Miller, and has held that office continually since that time. He has seen the department grow until now there are twenty-five firemen, four stations, with five trucks, a Buick for the chief's car and a Ford runabout for the assistant chief.
He was assistant chief when the department moved to the present station of company 1, on East Broadway, where he had his headquarters.

Mechanical Knowledge
Chief Lankford is a native of Edwardsville, Illinois, where he made his home until 1913, when coming to California in 1913. He had been engaged in the garage business and it was due to his general mechanical knowledge that he gained his first position on the Glendale fire department.
His home in Glendale is at 1320
Glenwood road. Mr. and Mrs.
Lankford have one boy, Burlin,
21 years of age, who attended Glendale Union High school. He at present resides in Whittier.

Spanish Woman Near
Burial While in Trance

MADRID, Feb. 5.—Mme. Laura Rodriguez, widow of an army chief and well known in Spanish society, has had a narrow escape from being buried alive
while in a trance.

Her death was announced, and many well known people assembled at the graveside for her funeral at Zamora.

Before being lowered into the grave, the coffin was uncovered, and Dr. Francisco Fernandez, after examining the body, declared to the horrified mourners that Mme. Rodriguez was still alive.

Several tests were made, and it was discovered that the back portion of the neck was still warm and that when her fingers were pressed they clearly gave signs of the circulation of the blood.

Mme. Rodriguez was removed to her residence still in a trance.

COMMENT

That's All

Economy In Government
Tributes Paid Wilson
Ten Cent Carfare Now
Community Complex

By Gil A. Cowan

Little over a year ago Friend William Richardson took office as governor of California, having been elected on a platform of economy and efficiency. It was his pledge that he would do away with the army of useless officeholders and to a large extent he is succeeding.

However, there was a hue and cry by some politicians who had been wallowing in the feed trough of taxation. They got considerable noisy publicity, threatening all sorts of dire things as a result of the "budgeteers" who boldly boarded the good ship Spendthrift and unloaded the wrecking crew as best they could.

A year ago the wails were being heard under the capitol dome at Sacramento, yet the state survived and today we see the very ones who were giving publicity to the "lost cause" now labelling the "army of officeholders" as the hog at the table.

And from Sacramento comes the comment that California is becoming "hogtight." Most of the taxpayers, squandering pie counter politicians, it is said, have been separated from their fat jobs. Another session of the legislature and California will be well fortified with efficient and economical officials, if we are any judge of affairs.

Candidates for the presidency of these United States also can do no more than pledge their best efforts for an administration of efficiency and economy. It is not a passing obsession, either, as some may suppose, but the people are demanding a dollar for every dollar they spend in taxes.

Tributes paid the life of former President Woodrow Wilson, whose greatness begins with death, as is always the case, are spoken from the hearts and it is pleasing to see what Lloyd George has to say:

"His life and death constitute one of those tragedies associated with great ideals which make men immortal."

President Millerand of France cables, through International News Service, the following:

"Humanity will preserve the memory of this noble thinker whose greatest desire was to assure permanent peace."

Newspapers of all shades of political opinion offered comment as follows:

New York World—"By the death of Woodrow Wilson, the greatest figure in world history that ever has risen from American soil is removed from the scene of his labors."

New York Tribune—"The figure of Woodrow Wilson in death stirs in the nation the same intense emotions which surrounded his living. Every American salutes the passing of this great figure."

New York Times—"A great light has gone out. Happily he did not die until he had seen the waves of personal animosity subside and until he knew that the kindest public feeling would accompany him to his grave."

New York Herald—"Woodrow Wilson will take up many pages of American history. He was a man who did things. He was a man who reached out for new ideas."

New York Daily News—"He (Mr. Wilson) tried to do something which is beyond the intelligence and wisdom of any man. He tried by word to correct all the ills of foreign statecraft accumulated in centuries, sharpened by national instincts and animosities in all lands and he failed by act to correct any of them or preserve the rights of the United States anywhere."

Kansas City Post—"The elements of greatness blended in the late ex-president, whose outstanding trait was the grim determination with which he pursued his objectives."

Some time ago Sam Davis, city councilman made the remark that people would be riding from Glendale to Exposition park in Los Angeles for a time. He reminded the writer that such was the case now that the Glendale & Montrose line connects with the Los Angeles yellow car lines.

However, it takes a book to get the rate, but at some later date actual ten-cent carfare into Los Angeles, or out, may become a reality. Times do change.

The Santa Ana Register has a humorous comment on the "Community Inferiority Complex," which follows:

Good evening!

How's your inferiority complex this evening?

Or have you got one?

You don't know what an inferiority complex is?

What shocking ignorance!

Almost equal to our own. We didn't know—at least we didn't quite know—until we heard Prof. J. Russell Bruff define and exemplify its meaning in an address at the Kiwanis club the other day.

According to that definition—and seriously and sincerely speaking, now—an inferiority complex is a mighty bad thing for anybody to have—especially a community inferiority complex.

"Suppose," said Prof. Bruff, "you meet a certain man ten or a dozen times during a fortnight, and every time you meet him he says something like this:

"My, but I do hate these winds; they make me as nervous as a witch."

"Damn those foggy mornings; they give me the blues; I've a good notion to move to Redlands or Hemet."

"If I were running the town I'd do something to stop the traffic noise at night on North Main street, so the people could get a little sleep."

"Why can't we have some

TUJUNGA

VOTERS APPROVE FIRE PROTECTION

Plan to Organize District Wins in Election by Narrow Margin

Voters of the Tujunga-Sunland district approved the formation of a county fire protection district by the small majority of five ballots in the election just held in Tujunga. A total of 229 votes were cast, 117 ayes and 112 noes. Action will be taken to organize the district and secure the necessary fire fighting equipment.

In connection with the statement made by a speaker at a recent mass meeting in Tujunga, at which fire protection was discussed, Joseph J. Davis, assistant county fire warden, has issued a statement that is intended to clarify misunderstandings. Mr. Davis desires to have it known that the county fire warden's office has been actively engaged in bringing abatement proceedings against fire menace conditions in Tujunga, contrary to the inference carried in the speaker's statement made at the mass meeting.

Abate Fire Menace
Mr. Davis states that he has been in charge of enforcement of the State Fire Menace Abatement act since the fall of 1922. He says that many hundred complaints of fire menaces have been received by his office and abatements secured and that over 50 per cent of the abatements were made through the efforts of his office without referring the complaints to the board of supervisors. The records show, according to Mr. Davis, that over 50 per cent of the cases have been in Tujunga.

Information regarding the correct procedure in making complaints is also given in Mr. Davis' statement, which is: "The complainant's name and address, the number of the complainant's lot and the name and number of the tract in which the lot is located. Address the complaint to the County Fire Warden, Hall of Records, Los Angeles, Calif. A written complaint is legally necessary, in case the complaint has to be placed before the board of supervisors for their action."

Watch Your Own Lot
"Before complaining, be sure that your property does not harbor a fire hazard equally as dangerous as the property next door, and also that the latter directly menaces your property. Many complaints are registered against brush-covered property situated across a traveled street from the complainant. Situations such as this cannot be held to be a fire menace, due to the width of the street forming an effective fire-break under all normal conditions. Another thing that might be mentioned is that this department is concerned only in abating fire menaces and can not apply the State Act to the clearing of an unsightly growth or scattered debris."

It is well to remember that the defendants in menace cases are entitled to hearing and at such hearing can protest against the expense and denuding of his or her property brought about by brush clearing. It is therefore this department's policy to guard against over-zealous decisions, to be absolutely fair and impartial to all concerned."

Bigamist Delivered Over to First Wife

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—On the plea of his first wife, Mrs. Grace Mundell, that she was "better qualified to take care of him than the guards at San Quentin," John Mundell, confessed bigamist, was surrendered to her custody by the court.

The first Mrs. Mundell promised to safeguard her wayward spouse from future marital entanglements on condition that he straighten out his complications with his second wife, Mrs. Georgiana Butcher Mundell.

EXPECT GOLF CHAMP

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Miss Edith Cummings, conqueror of Miss Alexa Stirling for the national women's golf championship, is scheduled to arrive here today preparatory to departing for Del Monte, where she will be an entrant in the Pebble beach championship next week.

place to go in the evenings besides the picture show and to bed, I'd like to know? I get so hungry for amusement sometimes that I'm tempted to sell out and move to a real town."

"And so on and on, world without end."

"That man," said Prof. Bruff, "has a bad case of community inferiority complex."

And we say, Good Lord deliver us from such a man! A man who can see only the spots on the sun. A man who can see only our faults and shortcomings—individual or community. A man who is blind to the beauty and beneficence all round about him, but has an eagle eye for the relatively infinitesimal blemishes and weak spots.

Again and again, Good Lord, deliver us from such a man!

Fourteen Candidates Initiated Into Lodge

Reports of success come from the open meeting last night of Glendale Council 3696, Security Benefit Association, in the Hahn auditorium at 109-A North Brand boulevard. Over 100 persons were in attendance.

Fourteen candidates were initiated, with the Los Angeles Council 737 in charge of the work. A welcome to the visitors was extended by Mrs. D. C. Stombs, president, and Ben J. Cox, Mr. Wheeler and Captain Frye responded for the visitors.

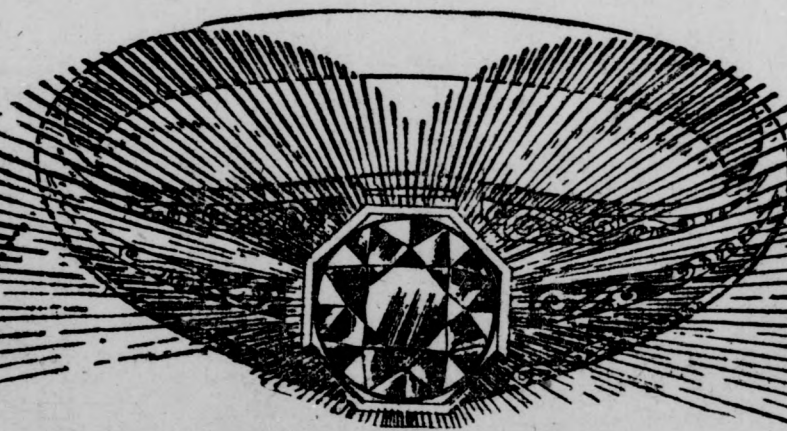

A special guest was Mrs. Mayer, district manager from San Bernardino, who gave a short talk. Late in the evening refreshments were served and music enjoyed.

The Glendale council, which meets the second and fourth Monday nights of each month, is planning a dance for Monday night, February 11.

Jeweler Gives Away Premiums at Auction

The jewelry auction held by R. L. Cole, 106 East Broadway, proved a popular drawing card for the opening day yesterday. The crowd was greatly interested in Mr. Cole's plan of giving away handsome presents every day during the auction sale. Miss Gladis White, 346 West Wilson street, and H. G. Scheidell, 109 West Broadway, were the winners last night. Miss White was presented with a valuable string of pearls and Mr. Scheidell with a fine diamond.

HOLLOW WALLS IN FIRE ZONES O. K.

Outlying Communities of Los Angeles Favored by New Ruling

Under the amended Los Angeles building code, all classes of hollow walls that have been approved including terra cotta tile, hollow brick walls, concrete brick, concrete tile, concrete precast slabs and concrete, may henceforth be used in the Van Nuys fire zone. The old ordinance limited construction in this zone to solid brick walls. The amendments will become effective February 10.

This covers all sections of the city fire district No. 3, which also includes Eagle Rock, Sawtelle, Wilmette and Boyle Heights. The information is given out by C. V. Welch, assistant chief inspector of buildings. Says Mr. Welch:

"These amendments are a revision of the present law for all types of masonry hollow wall construction. Including brick, terra cotta tile, concrete tile, concrete blocks, concrete units, concrete brick and poured monolithic concrete hollow walls."

Lankershim Gets H. S.
A bond issue is to provide Lankershim with a high school, according to Secretary William A. Sheldon of the Board of Education, who states:

"The needs of Lankershim for high school facilities are being considered and in the proposed bond issue to be voted upon in the near future provision is being made for a splendid new high school in Lankershim."

The Chamber of Commerce has been active in the effort to obtain a high school and Secretary Renfrew feels that the bond issue may be submitted to the voters at the May primaries.

"It is now up to the entire community to boost for the high school," says Secretary Renfrew. Let's make it unanimous and have this great forward project become an actuality."

West Side Viewpoint
The water problem of the West Side, in the Tujunga valley water and fire-fighting controversy, is summed up by a resident as follows:

"The communication of County Fire Warden Plintham, as published in the Sentinel under date of 17th inst., is the clearest, cleanest and decidedly the most informative of anything yet given out regarding the fire district and its formation.

But we of the west end of the proposed district to be formed have a water problem which does not obtain in the east end of the valley, and which the fire warden overlooks. It is well known that our water pressure is very much less than further east, and while his scheme would no doubt be successful there, we are of the opinion that with us it would be a failure.

"Our population is much scattered, while it is just the reverse in the east end. And for that reason it is the opinion of many that the west end could be better served by a chemical volunteer company."

Foursome Robbed By Two Youths at Annandale Club

It was on the sixth green of the Annandale Country club, east of Eagle Rock, that two youthful bandits yesterday afternoon held up a foursome, nervously twirling guns while the golf players equally nervously twisted their clubs.

E. M. Andrews and his guests, J. R. Martin, J. J. Crowley and P. W. Gockes were relieved of $700, it was reported to the Los Angeles police. The bandits escaped in a red roadster, but the caddies have a clue it was a former member of their ranks who planned the deed.

The sixth green of the Annandale Links is located near the Pasadena Military academy.

Income Tax Is Topic Of Accountant's Talk

Points to be observed in filing income tax returns were explained in detail by A. W. Hutchinson of Olin & Hutchinson, accountants, 150 South Brand boulevard, at the weekly luncheon of the Glendale Merchants' Association in the Egyptian Village yesterday, the address covering those matters that are of especial interest to business men.

R. E. Tucker, secretary of Community Service, asked for the cooperation of the association in arranging the birthday party that is to be held at the high school auditorium on February 22, Washington's birthday, for the young people of Glendale who have attained their twenty-first birthday during the past year.

The usual routine of business was taken up by the members.

Mrs. J. F. Mortenson was admitted to a surgical case Monday morning at the Research hospital, Melvin Anderson, Jr., of 1100 North Central avenue underwent a tonsilectomy operation yesterday at the Research hospital.

Mrs. R. P. Adams of 945 North Louise street underwent a major surgical operation at the Research hospital yesterday.

Gordon Dodwick, aged 12 years, of 529 West Doran street was admitted yesterday as a medical case at the Research hospital.

Night High School at Harvard St. Plant

"The move of the upper classes to the new high school building on Broadway will in no way affect the Glendale Union Evening high school," said Vice Principal A. L. Ferguson this morning.

"All sessions of the night school will be held in the Harvard street school as before." Many inquiries have been received as to the location of the classes now that the new building has been occupied.

For the rest of this year, at least, the night school will meet at Harvard street.

TAEGER COMING TO ADDRESS CLUB

College Women Invite Sheriff And Ex-City Manager As Special Guests

William Traeger, sheriff of Los Angeles county, is to put aside the dignity of officialdom next Saturday, when he and W. H. Reeves, formerly city manager of Glendale, will be special guests and speakers at the luncheon meeting of the Glendale College Women's club at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Both will be honored guests, for "Leland Stanford University Day" is to be observed by the alumnae, and Los Angeles' noted sheriff and Glendale's well known former city manager both attended Stanford in the early days. They will reminisce of old days and old ways on the Palo Alto campus.

Classmate of Hoover
Mr. Reeves, who was a classmate of Herbert Hoover, graduated back in 1895, when old Col. Stanford was a familiar figure on the campus.

Miss Jane Spaulding, state treasurer for the American Association of University Women, will be another special guest. She will speak on the state convention in June at Long Beach.

Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, president of the Glendale club, who is an alumna of Stanford, graduating in 1908, will give a group of violin numbers as a part of the entertainment.

Stanford members of the club, who will be hostesses, are Mesdames Mary M. Wright, C. H. Crawford, D. F. Reichard and A. L. Ferguson.

Graduates Invited
All Stanford men and women in Glendale are cordially invited to attend the program, which will begin at 1:30 o'clock, following the luncheon.

Reservations for the luncheon are to be received by Miss Hazel White up to Thursday.

L. A. Official Lauds City for Sewer Vote

Mayor Spencer Robinson recently received a letter from Charles H. Treat, former president of the board of public works of Los Angeles, regarding the successful issue of the bond election held January 8, in which he states, "I congratulate you and the people of Glendale on the result of your bond election."

Mr. Treat, in thanking the mayor for his statement of appreciation for co-operation rendered, further says that the protection of the public health by the construction of a modern sewage system will add far more to property values in Glendale than the amount of the bond issue.

Location of the caisses now that the new building has been occupied. For the rest of this year, at least, the night school will meet at Harvard street.

NEW SANITARIUM NEARLY COMPLETE

C. E. Kimlin Fixes Tentative Date of Formal Opening Around March V

The new Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital is fast nearing completion as the finishing touches are being made on the inside. The beautiful modern fireproof structure is being erected by the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, an incorporated organization with a board of seven directors. The approximate cost of the new building when completely furnished will aggregate close to $800,000.

C. E. Kimlin, business manager of the corporation, states that the grand opening will be on or about March 1. The new Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital is to be run by the Seventh Day Adventist denomination, but will be open to all patients of every denomination, the only exceptions being made in the cases of infectious and contagious diseases which are not admitted for treatment.

The new home will have accommodations for 175 patients. There are 132 private rooms, each having its separate toilet and lavatory, with running water. All the rooms are outside rooms, with the latest medical devices for comfort and efficiency. Two hundred and fifty employees will be needed to look after the patients. The new hospital on the old sanitarium site will remain and, with its accommodations for twenty-five cases, the total capacity of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital will be 200 persons. The treatments administered to the patients include the Battle Creek, rational and massage treatments, as well as others.

Located in Foothills
The new location is on one of the San Rafael hills, and includes thirty acres of grounds, overlooking the city of Glendale and the surrounding hills of Griffith park and Verdugo. The Montrose car line runs past the entrance.

The board of directors of the corporation which is financing the huge undertaking is: W. W. Milson Adams, president; W. D. Salisbury, vice-president; C. E. Kimlin, secretary, treasurer and general manager; G. W. Reser, B. M. Emerson, J. L. McElhany, Dr. H. G. Westphal, medical director, and Dr. W. J. Johnson.

Alfred E. Priest is the architect for the magnificent building. W. E. Whalin of Oakland, Cal., the superintendent of construction, is making great progress in the construction, and assures the owners that the structure will be completed before the contracted time.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm. It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

Recommend News To Newcomers as Its Home Paper

Do not hesitate to recommend The Glendale Evening News to all newcomers—neighbors, particularly who should get acquainted with this city.

The Glendale Evening News is a complete newspaper, with telegraphic, local, feature and sporting events chronicled. It is not an organ for any clique or class; it is not a supplement or wrapper; it is not a substitute.

The Glendale Evening News is strictly a home institution, owned and operated by Glendale people, for Glendale people, with only the best interests of this city at heart. You make no mistake in recommending this newspaper. It speaks for itself in the volume of reading matter and advertising.

The Glendale Evening News truly represents Glendale.

Thompson Tells What His Instruction Does

Robert H. Thompson, founder of the National Educational Institute, New York, "the man with the million dollar smile," who will lecture at Hahn's auditorium on Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week, claims his course will enable all who hear it:

1. To recall the names of at least eight out of ten people to whom he is introduced; and, 2. To file mentally at least fifteen objects and numbers in the same manner, as illustrated in his demonstrations.

Among Glendale business houses sending employees to Thompson's lectures are Pen-droy's Dry Goods company, D. L. Gregg Hardware company, Tropic pottery, E. E. Corrigan, Jesse E. Smith, Ford dealer; Chevrolet Motor company, Court Motor company, Glendale State Bank, Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank, Federal Commercial and Savings Bank, and the First National Bank, Glendale.

The lectures start at 8 o'clock.

Drives Off In Wrong Car, Then Returns It

Just as Mrs. Ellen Wright of 530 Palm drive was phoning the police that some one had stolen her Chevrolet coupe, from Brand boulevard and Harvard street between 8 and 10 o'clock last night, Ralph Bliss walked into the station, reporting that he had the car.

Mr. Bliss owns a car exactly like the misplaced machine, and had taken Mrs. Wright's car by mistake. He took the car to her home when the police sergeant supplied him with her address.

Three Patients Have Surgical Operations

Mrs. John Fanset of 321 South Glendale avenue underwent a minor surgical operation yesterday at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

Carlyle Hayward of 206 East Dryden underwent a minor surgical operation at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital yesterday.

Mrs. A. E. Morse of 121 1/2 North Belmont underwent a major surgical operation at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital yesterday.

NEWS LAUDED BY GOTHAM OFFICER

World War Veteran Planning to Lead Motor Party to California

The far reaching effect of the New Year's edition of The Glendale Evening News is seen in a letter received today by Gil A. Cowan of the Glendale Evening News staff from Major Harry A. Taylor, U. S. R. C., who is a lieutenant of police in New York City. He writes:

"I received the newspaper and found the reading very interesting. I am always pleased to hear from my old comrades and especially from my former first sergeant. My time in the police department is getting short, so we are thinking seriously of going west if I can be retired soon."

Others Interested
"Other friends of mine also are interested in this trip west and I hope to make up a party which will motor to California with a view to establishing our homes. If we should come we will certainly look you up at Glendale."

Major Taylor was counter espionage officer for the District of Columbia and was commanding officer of the detachment, Corps of Intelligence Police, with which Cowan served during the war. Prior to the war the major was secretary to Arthur Woods, Commissioner of police in New York city.

Auto Stolen After Collision, Is Reported

Although the garage people called for her car at her request within one-half hour after she had a minor accident at Brand and Maple yesterday, Mrs. W. W. Stamps of 435 West Colorado street informed the police last night that it had disappeared when they arrived.

The police have been unable to find any trace of it.

TACKY COSTUMES SHOWN AT DANCE

Atmosphere of Country Story Keynote at Dance of Jolly Bachelors

The tacky costume dance given last Saturday night by the Jolly Bachelors proved to be one of the most successful and most enjoyable affairs given during the season. In fact it was said it was the "Jolly Bachelors' Banner night."

The hall had been cleverly decorated for the occasion by the Globe Milling company. An old fashioned country store, cleverly arranged in one corner of the hall, created considerable amusement. Other decorations appropriately carried out the scheme. Prizes of groceries, meats and meal were awarded by Hiram, the caretaker of the store, who also announced where the same quality of groceries and meats could be obtained in Glendale, naming a number of prominent Glendale merchants.

Look Like Farmers
The ever popular Kelly Shrine Club orchestra furnished the music for the evening. They were costumed in farmers' attire and as a special feature of the evening played many of the old time pieces, including "Liza Jane," "Turkey in the Straw" and others, which added to the jollification of the evening.

There were more than 300 Glendaleans in attendance, most of whom were in costume.

The Jolly Bachelors' dances are becoming so popular they are planning to give a dance every Wednesday night in addition to the Saturday night dances. Particulars regarding the Wednesday night dances are announced in an advertisement in another part of The Glendale Evening News.

The Lapps at one time had a great reputation for witchcraft and it was said English seamen used to go to Lapland to "buy a wind" from the natives.

DEMAND GREATER THAN the SUPPLY

Rentals Are Difficult to Find

—and very few realty offices there are in Glendale but that have a waiting list of newcomers and old who wish to rent. Why let such an opportunity slip by? Accommodate these folks and at the same time reap your own reward. Court bungalows are always in demand.

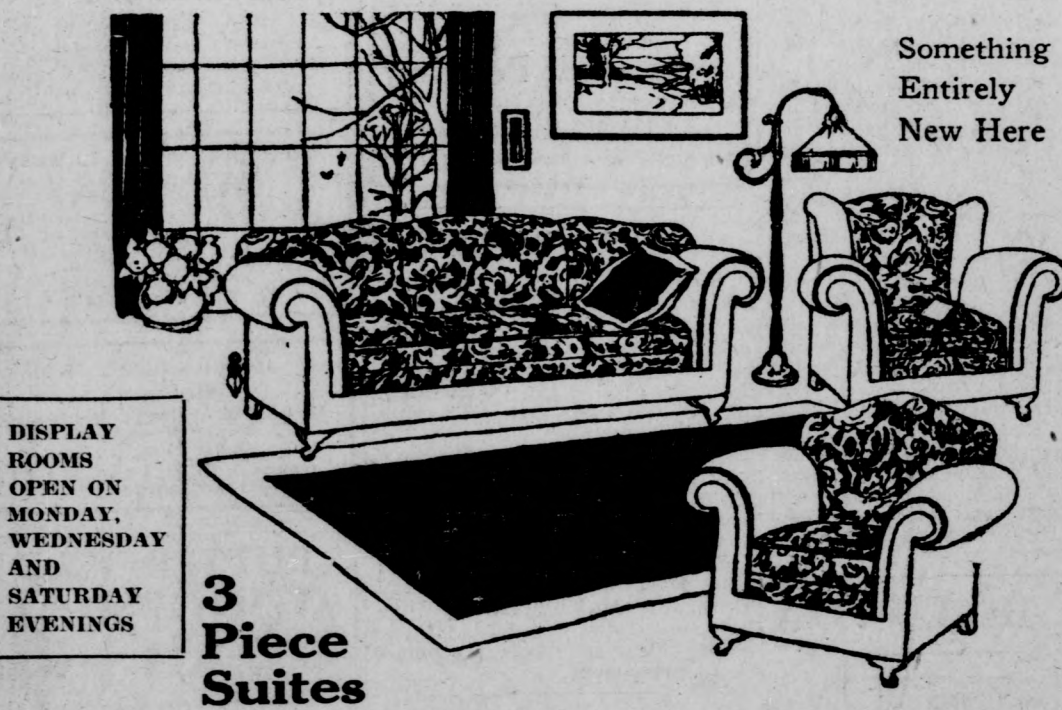

The better the location, the greater the demand. An almost perfect location is on a new and quiet street; within one block and a half of the new Glendale Avenue car line which gives ample service at a price that is appreciated; only a short distance farther to Brand Boulevard; near two of Glendale's finest grade and kindergarten schools; parcel is 100 ft. by 203 ft.; owner is not in a position to build; it's a real court site and an ideal situation in which to be of service to your city, your friends, and yourself. CLEVELAND, Feb. 4.—Whether it is the new form of city government which has been functioning in Cleveland since January 8, or whether it is just another of those periodic reform waves which strikes cities big and little the country over, no one seems to have definitely determined, but it is unquestionably true that since City Manager William R. Hopkins began to function the town which Moses Cleveland founded has been awakened and stirred in a manner the like of which even the "oldest inhabitant" cannot match from memory's reservoir.

Scarcely had Hopkins taken his seat and installed his cabinet when Director of Public Safety Edward D. Barry summoned Chief of Police Jacob S. Graul to his office and ordered him to "get the gamblers."

"I know the location of every gambling joint in Cleveland," Barry told Graul, "and if you and the police can't find them and put them out of business, I can and will."

The police, however, also seemed to know where the hand-book makers and the runners of blackjack and other games of chance had their headquarters, and raids were staged upon the sources from which those who laid bets on the horses got their information. A tip to the runners of the games of chance was in some cases sufficient, and Cleveland's "Monte Carlo," where those sportively inclined could bet anything from $1 to $100 on the turn of a card discharged their dealers and pay-off men, and waited to see what was going to happen.

There is, however, some speculation as to whether the anti-gambling crusade will assume county-wide proportions, and whether the betting at running and harness racing next Summer will come under the ban. Sheriff Charles B. Stannard, the official directly in charge of these matters, has given no indication that he will follow in the footsteps of the city authorities.

Probably no city in the United States had more widespread or open gambling than Cleveland when the order came to shut up shop. One place, where entry to the gambling rooms was from the street, through a barber shop, and into the rooms where at half a

A reader, whose wife was drawn to serve on a jury, writes us as follows:
The saddest words of tongue or pen

I mutter, like all other men:
"My wife is on the jury."
I must stay at home and mind the kids

And do whatever my wife bids,
For she is on the jury.
For when she hears the call of state

She beats it from the old home plate
In patriotic fury.
And leaves the dishes in the sink.

In years gone by ne'er did I think
That she'd be on a jury.
But she is in charge of the mind,
Like all the others of her kind.

I've known that since I wed her.

And couched in language quite her own.

I never have gainsaid her.

Pretty European Countess Weds For Love

Marie Roue, Princess of Hohenloe-Bartenstein

PARIS, Feb. 5.—Marie Roue, Countess of Hohenloe-Bartenstein, one of the most beautiful women of noble birth in Europe, is married. Continental nobility is astonished—she married for love. Her husband is Hugo Waldenmaier, a village school master.

Marie is the daughter of Archduchess Ann of Austria and her uncle is the well-known Leopold Wolffing, who was recently discovered performing in a Berlin cabaret. Despite the present precarious financial condition of the family, it was believed that the much-sought Marie would be able to marry wealth and have a social position in Europe worthy of the past glory of her family.

Waldenmaier, whom she married in Stuttgart, is the son of a foreman in a furniture factory.

He served until March 7, 1921 and during part of that time was acting secretary of state and also a member and chairman of the international Communications Conference in Washington.

He was born in Bedford, Co., Tenn., Aug. 9, 1878 and studied at Vanderbilt, the University of California.

As a reward for his long and brilliant service in the army and his work as superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, Brig. Gen. Fred W. Sladen becomes a major-general under recommendation of Secretary of War Weeks.

The number of men raised to this rank is limited in the history of the country's military forces.

Gen. Sladen will succeed Maj. Gen. Walter H. Gordon, who has retired. Gen. Sladen was born in Massachusetts and appointed to the military academy from Nebraska.

He served in the Philippines and in China, and during the World War commanded the First and Second Training Camps at the Presidio, San Francisco, and commanded the Fifth Infantry Brigade, Third Division in France.

receiving the Distinguished Service Medal, the Croix de Guerre, and the Italian decoration of Croce Al Merito di Guerra. He commanded the First Brigade with the American forces in Germany, and, upon his return to the United States, served for a time at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

It costs the United States Government $600,000 a year to guard its mail sacks on railroad trains.

At the beginning of the world war Davis volunteered his services in any capacity he might be needed and was appointed financial adviser to secretary of the treasury, in charge of loans to allied governments. Later he served as special delegate to Madrid, London and Paris. He was a member of the supreme council of supplies and relief, finance commissioner of U. S. to Europe and official financial adviser to President Wilson and the American Peace delegates in Paris.

He was a member of the armistice commission and later a member of the supreme economic council. He assisted in drafting the financial provisions of the peace treaty and then was appointed a member of the reparations committee and financial commission.

In November, 1919, he was made assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of foreign loans and on June 15, 1920 was named under secretary of state.

He served until March 7, 1921 and during part of that time was acting secretary of state and also a member and chairman of the international Communications Conference in Washington.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S POSTAGE STAMPS

"What are you going to do today, Uncle Wiggily?" called Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one morning in the hollow stump bungalow. The bunny gentleman had just finished his breakfast of carrot pancakes with lettuce maple sugar sprinkled on the middle.

"Why, I think I am going out to look for an adventure," answered the bunny uncle, twinkling his pink nose in such a funny way that the looking glass had to laugh.

"Would it be any trouble for you to stop at the postoffice and mail some letters for me?" went on Nurse Jane.

"I shall mail the letters for you with a great deal of pleasure," replied the bunny.

He finished putting on his gray necktie to match his pink twinkling nose, and when Uncle Wiggily slid down the banister rail of the stairs he saw a bundle of letters on the hall table.

"Are these the letters to go to the postoffice, Nurse Jane?" he inquired.

"Yes," answered Fuzzy Wuzzy, "if you please."

"But there are no stamps on them!" objected Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, I thought you would be so kind as to buy them for me, wet them and stick them on," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy with a smile.

"Why, yes, I'll do that," kindly offered the bunny uncle.

So, with the bundle of letters in his pocket, Uncle Wiggily started to hop over the fields and through the woods on his way to the postoffice.

"And perhaps I may have an adventure," thought Mr. Longears.

He was hopping along, over the snow, hoping none of the animal boys would throw snowballs at his tail, silk hat, when, all of a sudden, Uncle Wiggily heard a voice saying:

"There he goes now!"

"No, that's only a stove pipe sticking out of some house," objected another voice.

"Ha! Ha! That stove pipe, as you call it, is Uncle Wiggily's silk hat!" chuckled the first voice.

"I have seen it many times before. Come on! We'll chase him and have nibbled ears for lunch!" Looking back, Uncle Wiggily saw the Bob Cat and Fox coming from behind a stump.

"Oh, ho! I've got to run now!" thought the rabbit.

On he ran as fast as he could go. But the Bob Cat and Fuzzy Fox, seeing him, dashed after him. Uncle Wiggily hopped fast, but so did the bad chaps, and they were almost going to catch the bunny rabbit when, all of a sudden, Uncle Wiggily reached a place where the animals boys and girls had made a slippery, icy slide before school.

"Ha! If I can reach that slide and glide along, perhaps I can get away from the Fox and Bob Cat!" thought the bunny. "May be they don't know how to slide, and they may fall down and bump their noses!"

The bunny gentleman reached the slide. He took a little run and then he slid down the long, straight, smooth icy place.

"Come on! We'll get him!" howled the Bob Cat to the Fox. But just then the Bob Cat's paw struck the icy slide, and, not knowing it was there, the Bob Cat slipped and stumbled, falling down and bumping his nose.

"Ouch!" howled the Bob Cat. Coming after him, the Fuzzy Fox also struck the slide. Out from under him went the paws of the Fox. Down he fell—ker bump!—and he smashed into the Bob Cat.

"Wow! wow!" howled the Fox.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily, now safely at the other end of the long slide. "They didn't catch me after all!"

Then the bunny hopped along to the postoffice and bought the stamps for Nurse Jane's letters. The rabbit was wetting the stamps on his tongue, he made them sticky so they could be fastened to the envelopes, when, all of a sudden, along came the Bob Cat. He had gotten up off the slippery slide!

"Hi! Ho!" howled the bad chap with a wicked laugh. "Now I am going to nibble your ears!"

"Oh, are you?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Well, I'm not going to let you see my ears, so how can you nibble them?"

"How can you stop me from seeing your ears?" snarled the Bob Cat.

"This way!" cried the bunny. Quickly then he wet a sticky stamp and pasted it over the Bob Cat's left eye. Then the bunny pasted a sticky stamp over the Bob Cat's right eye. "Now you can't see to nibble me!" laughed Mr. Longears.

And the Bob Cat couldn't. The more he tried to pull the sticky stamps from his eyes the tighter they stuck. And when he did rub them off Uncle Wiggily had mailed Nurse Jane's letters and was safely back in the bungalow.

Defies Age by Using Ordinary Buttermilk to Beautify Complexion

This Pretty Girl Tells Druggists Not to Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Shows a Decided Improvement.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows' feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger-nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms, caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream.—Advertisement.

Combat Spread of Radicals

PASADENA, Feb. 5.—Following a meeting held at the University club, steps have been taken by twenty-five committeemen of the Sons of the American Revolution to preserve the early traditions of America and combat the spread of radicalism. It is probable that they will withdraw from the Los Angeles chapter and form a separate organization for this city.

Temescal Water Grab

SANTA ANA, Feb. 5.—Protests will be filed by Orange, Fullerton, Anaheim and Santa Ana over what is termed a "grab" by the Temescal Water company of water rights in the Santa Ana river, according to Mayor J. W. Tubbs of this city, who points out that unless checked the attitude of the water company in seeking to control unappropriated water in this river may serve to block plans of these municipalities for development of a domestic water supply.

Advertising in Vaudeville

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 5.—A vaudeville sketch depicting in a semi-humorous way some of the disillusionments of those who crave the "movies" as a career is to go over a national circuit on a fifty-two-week tour under auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. The sketch will tend to overcome the film-struck feeling that sends so many boys and girls to this community, only to send them back home a few months later, in many cases much worse off for the experience.

Boy, Page Wallace Irwin

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 5.—If Mayor C. M. Andra wishes to secure any favors from Taipei, Taiwan, all he has to do is to command M. Komoto, evidently the chief mogul of that city, which is located somewhere in Japan. A letter received by Mayor Andra from Komoto states in part: "Mayor: "Enclosed letter is to go to Mr. David Gray in your city but I don't know. "No street" of his living place. Thinking that your census register know it. "I ask you to hand him it for me. "Command us freely in similar cases."

Whale Visits Pier Work

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 5.—A thirty-foot whale caused a great deal of excitement when he swam up to the pier where several fishermen were at work, and, after an initial fillup, dashed under the pier. Holding their breaths, the fishermen prepared to emulate Jonah, but friend whale with another fillup of his tail turned and headed for Newport, leaving the pier intact.

Chicken Raisers to Meet

GARDEN GROVE, Feb. 5.—The poultry department of the Orange County Farm Bureau meets here tomorrow night, at the Women's Civic clubhouse, when the spirit animating the assemblage will be "Co-operation." J. Keeney, manager of the Poultry Producers' association of San Diego, will talk.

Knocks Bandit into Brine

ANAHEIM, Feb. 5.—J. H. Treziso, engineer at the Fullerton ice plant, in a fistfight affair with an alleged bandit knocked the latter into a brine tank with a two-by-four scantling. While he went to phone the police the bandit escaped.

STATE DEPORTING ALIEN IMBECILES

334 Inmates of California
Institutions Get Free
Rides 'Back Home'

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—Deportation of 334 inmates of state hospitals and correctional schools, practically to every state in the Union and most foreign countries, more particularly to Greece, Turkey and other southern European countries, has been carried out, it was announced today by W. D. Wagner, chief of the Department. California has been the dumping ground of imbeciles because of its prosperity.

"From the Preston School of Industry at Ione; nineteen boys were returned to Texas," added Wagner.

At least 200 additional deportations will be made within a few months.

Relieves California
"Our institutions are overcrowded," explained Dagner. "A large percentage of the inmates should be cared for by other states and foreign countries. Indeed, it is only fair that California taxpayers should be relieved of paying for the maintenance of the physically and morally defective of other states and foreign countries.

The Ventura School for Girls is the one institution from which no deportations have been made. Wagner said most of the inmates of this institution are residents of California.

Deportations from other state institutions are as follows:

Preston Reform School, 71; Southern California Hospital, 76; Stockton State Hospital, 87; Napa Hospital, 44; Agnews Hospital, 31; Norwalk Hospital, 27; Mendocino Hospital, 15 and Whittier School one.

Keeping Dogs in City 'Small Town Habit'

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5.—Keeping dogs in Los Angeles is a "small town habit," according to the views of Arthur George, 2078 Mound Street, Hollywood, expressed in a communication to the City Council.

George contended that the city should enact ordinances "to discredit" keeping dogs in the city. He frankly admitted that he had a grudge against dogs and urged legislation that owners of canines be prohibited from allowing them in stores and public places.

He declared that Los Angeles is afflicted with "canimania," and added that the practice of keeping dogs in the city at all may be regarded as somewhat discreditable.

$700,000 Revenue as Result of Gas Tax

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 5.—Road funds were swelled more than $700,000 from the revenues collected by the secretary of state for motor vehicle licenses and the sale of gasoline during 1923. Total motor vehicle registration for the year was 48,741 and the fees collected amounted to $281,670.75 as compared to $216,124.75 for the Year 1922. The sum of $422,692.74 was collected as gasoline tax on the basis of one cent a gallon up to June 9, and three cents a gallon thereafter. In 1922, under a one cent tax, $174,606.36 were collected.

DENIED CITIZENSHIP

FRESNO, Cal., Feb. 5.—Ten applications for citizenship were denied here by Judge C. E. Beaumont when it was revealed that aliens had evaded military service by claiming exemption, or had made false statements.

Economical Building

Everyone wants the best for his money. We want our homes of the best, at as low cost as possible.

Whether the new home be large or small, "wet-mix" poured Concrete Hollow Tile is suitable. The initial cost is as low as frame or frame stucco, with the additional advantage of lower maintenance. "Wet-mix" poured Concrete Hollow Tile may be used as it comes, or painted—as the owner desires. One coat of paint will last.

VALUE OF ORANGE JUICE EXPLAINED

Nutritive Value as Great as Milk Says Dr. Morgan of University

BERKELEY, Feb. 5.—"Orange juice has as much food value as milk," says Dr. S. E. Morgan of the home economics department of the University of California. She has done much research work in this line and declares that oranges are of as great nutritive value as milk and perhaps even more valuable as a food.

School authorities for some time have been trying to overcome malnutrition among students by the introduction of a supplementary lunch, consisting usually of milk and crackers. According to Dr. Morgan, this diet is good, but milk has been proven to be an incomplete food. It also is satiating and tends to cause lack of appetite for the noon meal. This increases the tendency of the undernourished child to diminish his food intake.

On the other hand, says Dr. Morgan, oranges are as rich in vitamins as milk. They tend to stimulate the appetite. In the case of infants, oranges stimulate their growth and are a protective food. Milk, says Dr. Morgan, has been proved to be a contributing cause of infantile scurvy, if it is pasteurized or if fed before

Ruins of Ancient Race Opened to Tourists

PHOENIX, Feb. 5.—Ruins of an ancient race known to science as the Canal Builders will be made accessible to the public by an order of the county board of supervisors, opening up Chicago avenue. The heads of three canals have been bared, and the ancient waterways traced for many miles. Nearby stands the ruin of an ancient apartment house, capable of accommodating 1,800 persons, from which several carloads of material were excavated for the Smithsonian Institution several years ago.

It is now planned to excavate the ruins, thereby providing a point of interest for tourists.

Action on Tax-Exempt Securities Is Delayed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Early action on the administration resolution to abolish tax-exempt securities was blocked Monday in the house.

Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, asked unanimous consent to bring these resolutions up next Thursday, but an objection was made by Representative Abernathy, Democrat of North Carolina.

H. G. Wells Ordered to Cut Down Work

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—H. G. Wells, perhaps the most prolific of England's modern writers, has been ordered by his physicians to cease his labors for a time, with death hanging over his head if he fails to heed their instructions, according to information received here by friends of Wells.

Physicians who recently examined Wells are understood to have informed him that unless he ceased his intensive work he might not live for another three months. Wells immediately packed up his bags and left for Portugal, where he hopes that a milder climate will enable him to build up his constitution and carry on his work at the same time.

Wells is one of the most intensive of modern writers, and when he works forgets all else. His great efforts in recent years have been constantly wearing down his constitution until he is now in a fairly delicate condition. The rigors of the damp, dismal English weather have also affected his health.

ON CHARITIES BOARD

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—Appointment of Mrs. Maude King of Sacramento and Mrs. Laura L. Kelly of Los Angeles as members of the state board of charities and corrections succeeding D. H. Pendleton of Oakland, term expired, and Mrs. Kerry P. Bryant, of Los Angeles, resigned, was announced today by Governor Richardson.

Co-eds Scientifically Studying Infants

BERKELEY, Feb. 5.—The days of rearing children by instinct are passed with the scientific study of babies now being made by co-eds of the University of California under the supervision of Miss Rosalind Walzen.

Nearly one hundred and fifty young women have enrolled for this course, which disproves the public concept that college women are too frivolous and gay to devote attention to the care of children.

No scarcity of infants under twelve months of age has been encountered. Usually they are found in the neighborhood of the student's home and the parents are willing and interested to have their babies studied.

Visits are made by the individual students every two weeks, and the physical and psychological changes between the ages of two months and seven months are closely watched.

Two Cents More Added to Price of Gasoline

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The Standard Oil company (Indiana) directors voted Monday afternoon to increase the price of gasoline 2 cents a gallon in the eleven states it serves, effective tomorrow. The new price in the Chicago territory will be 18 cents from tank wagons and 20 cents from service stations.

Clark Trial Under Way Shick Murder Charge

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 5.—The preliminary examination of E. Drew Clark, charged with the murder of George E. Schick, wealthy broker who strangely disappeared last February, got under way yesterday afternoon in the court of Justice Lacey Jennings.

The charge of forgery against Clark and his wife, Elita Mae Clark, was stricken from the calendar by Superior Judge Edgar A. Luce. The trial of the "man of many aliases" on the lesser charge will be held in abeyance until after the murder trial is out of the way, it was understood.

OXY DROPS SLOW GAME TO POMONA

Sagehens Defeat Tigers by 16 to 11 Score on Court At Franklin Gym

Pomona College romped on Occidental's remaining hopes for a basketball victory and trimmed the Tiger varsity 16 to 11 in a game of keepaway last Saturday evening in the Franklin High gym. Neither team could ring a basket during the first ten minutes. The game was slow and the scant audience became disgusted. It was poor shooting by both teams, which took the pep out of the game. After a while they would not try for a goal but kept passing the melon around. However, Jessen and Merritt of Pomona tossed in several nice ones and Stoller and Wagner added a couple for Oxy, so when the half ended the Sagehens led, 13 to 6.

When the coaches finished bawling their teams out the game began to show signs of life. The Tigers worked desperately to gain the lead, but never threatened to crush their opponents. Pomona made three more points and Oxy scored five more points. The referee announced to a vacant rooting section that Pomona won.

Wagner Is Oxy Star
Lorbeer, Merritt and Jessen did most of the scoring for the winners. Captain Wagner was the Oxy hero. Although he did not make all the points, Wagner played a wonderful game and used his head throughout, following the ball and busting up many an attempt at the ring. Wagner had to play super-basketball to make up for the handicap in starting only six men to use. The other varsity men are up north on a ten-day tour. Ebers, Forden, Wheeler, Morrow, McInnis and Hazeltine were not here to help out.

The line-up:
Pomona Oxy
Merritt (5).....F.....Wagner (3)
Lorbeer (4).....F.....Stoller (6)
Lang (2).....G.....Johnson
Robbie (2).....G.....Chandler (2)
Jessen (5).....G.....Ridderhoff
Subs: Oxy, Bennetts for Stoller; Pomona, Messing, Papazian, Wiggins.

Net Stars Rally for Pasadena Tournament

The Huntington Hotel Invitational Tennis Tournament opened this morning at Pasadena with sixteen of the best players on the coast entered. The competition is more exciting and the matches are drawing many spectators. Harvey Snodgrass will be the center of attraction with Walter Westbrook furnishing plenty of opposition. The Kinsey brothers of San Francisco are both entered. Ray Casey, northern star racket man, is to represent that part of the state. Tom Ferrandini and Harold Godshall will uphold the L. A. Tennis club. Then the top-notchers of the Pasadena Tennis club will be on hand to try and keep the honors in the Crown city. Such local talent as Bob Allen, Upton Sinclair, Kenneth Newell all look good on the courts.

Occidental Plans to Organize Golf Team

The latest rumors from the Occidental campus are that the youthful golf enthusiasts of the student body are to incorporate a Tiger varsity golf team. For many years the eastern and southern universities and colleges have been holding intercollegiate tournaments. Pomona college has had a team for nearly a year now and the Tiger sport lovers of the green are jealous of their rival institution. They are eager to meet the sagehens and display their wares. Arrangements are being made to obtain the use of the San Gabriel Country club course. Jack Cosgrove, Charles Boice, Herbert Hamilton, Gordon Shoaf and even Coach Pipal are the boosters for the proposed team.

'BIG THREE' CAGE TEAMS ARE TIED

College Tossers Preparing For Crucial Schedule In Coast Contest

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—California's "big three" college basketball teams found themselves tied today as they entered on a week of hard practice for a series of games which will figure largely in deciding Pacific coast honors.

Stanford, California and University of Southern California enter the week's contest with all of their veterans in shape and none has an advantage. The Bears and Cardinals will meet for the first time this season at Palo Alto Saturday night and the week following the red-shirts play the Trojans at Los Angeles.

Arizona Upsets Dope
California suffered an upset Saturday night when the speedy Arizona quintet sent the Bears down to defeat, and this week will be devoted to ironing out ragged playing which developed during the Arizona contest. To date California has played a flashy, brilliant although inconsistent game, but Coach Wight expects to have his shooters at top form for the Stanford game.

Stanford is steadily improving after a slow start, and while handicapped by a lack of reserve players the Cardinals' games, especially those against the University of Nevada, compare favorably with its rivals. A tight defensive game is being favored by Stanford and the Cardinals have had few big scores run up against them this season.

British King Excelled Only By Champion; Has Keen Eye for Partridge

By CHARLES A. SMITH
For International News Service.
LONDON, Feb. 5.—King George, it is claimed, is one of the two best shots in the world. The king is considered by experts to be second only to R. H. Rimington-Wilson, premier shot of England, who has secured every conceivable kind of trophy for shooting.

Like many other world-famous shots, King George is stated to show a greater proficiency at shooting partridges than at any other kind of game, and has won most of his laurels at this sport. Stated by those who have accompanied him to be very cool, as quick as lightning, and with an exceptional instinct at timing the flight of birds, the king's bag at the end of a day's shoot has proved that he can justify his description as the world's second best shot.

On a par with his ability as a game shot, the king's skill with a rifle is also stated to be exceptional. One of the most remarkable bags in the history of game shooting was secured by a party of which he was a member in 1904. He was the guest of the late Lord Lathom, and by luncheon time the shoot had started at 9 o'clock—they had accounted for 1,300 head, and at 4 o'clock, when the shoot ended, the total had reached 2,190 head. King George during the shoot worked three guns and accounted for the largest percentage of kills.

Although his sight is now not so good as it used to be, King George regularly takes part in several shoots every year and usually accounts for a large number of birds. The fact that at 59 he is still accounted as the world's second best shot gives some indication of his prowess when in his heyday.

He carefully fosters and follows the shooting matches held at Bisleigh and other centers during the year, giving many trophies for the marksmen to compete for.

COLGATE TO OPEN TRACK AT PENN

Dual Meet April 25 Will Be Followed by Three Other Clashes

HAMILTON, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Colgate will open its 1924 track campaign on April 25, when the Maroon speed artists will compete in the Penn Relay Carnival at Philadelphia. It was announced by Manager H. G. Bromfield.

Featuring the schedule are dual meets with Syracuse, Army and Hamilton College. Colgate also will compete in the intercollegiate May 22 and 23.

Although several of the stars of the Maroon combination of last year were lost through graduation, including Patterson, one of the fastest dash men ever developed here, Coach Jack Rourke has a fine nucleus for a strong team.

After the Penn relays the Maroon will engage in its first dual meet of the season with its ancient Orange rival at Syracuse May 3. An interclass meet will be held on Whitnall field May 7.

Hamilton College, which was met for the first time in several seasons last year, will oppose the Maroon here May 16. The Maroon scored over the Buff and Blue in an interesting meet in 1922, and the event this season promises to be even more keenly contested. A sprint medley will be held at Hamilton May 21.

After the intercollegiate Colgate athletes will compete for the Scalp and Blade cup and in the fraternity relay May 28. The annual interscholastic event will be held May 31, with several of the leading high school and prep teams in this vicinity competing for the honors.

Oxy Athletes Ready Saturday Track Meet

Coach Pipal's much hoped for inter-class track meet is all set for next Saturday afternoon, February 9, at 2 p. m., on Patterson Field. Unless there is a cloudburst, the meet is certain to take place.

The hundred or more trackmen at Occidental are working hard and the showing made in the inter-class meet will give the coach as well as the fans a good line on how the Tigers will come out in the conference cinderpath season. Things look promising for another championship track team. Already the dopesters are busy figuring how bad the Tigers will wallow the Sagehens this season. The Oxy fellows are kind of lording it over on Pomona even before the season gets underway.

One thing is absolutely certain, and that is that Occidental will have the largest representation on the combination conference team which means Stanford this year. The Orange and Black don't seem to be doing any worrying over their dual encounter with Coach Cromwell's hand-picked tracksters.

Northern Schedule Keeps Tossers Busy

The Occidental College varsity and freshmen basketball teams, now in northern California on a ten day barnstorming trip, meeting the leading American Legion, Y. M. C. A., and Athletic Clubs en route, are surprising the northern players by their brilliant playing.

The freshmen team met Bakersfield High Thursday and defeated the oil drillers 44 to 2. The next night the Tiger babes won a nip and tuck contest from the Lindsey prep five 26 to 16.

The varsity squad, minus the services of Captain Wagner, Stoller, Bennetts, Ridderhoff, Chandler and Johnson, who remained south long enough to meet Pomona, dropped a close game to the Bakersfield Owls 23 to 20. In the following game the Oxy varsity trimmed the Lindsey Argonauts 16 to 15.

Captain Wagner, Coach Nichols, and the varsity men who stayed here for the Sagehen game last Saturday night, have joined the rest of the travelers in Fresno and will proceed to San Francisco, playing in several games on the way and returning in time to meet Redlands February 9 in the Bulldog gymnasium.

EAGLE ROCK

ENGINE COMPANY SCORES IN TEST

Underwriters' Surprise Trial Finds Firemen Ready for Emergencies

Following a recent surprise test by the National Board of Underwriters, Engine No. 42, the Eagle Rock branch of the Los Angeles fire department, was rated 100 per cent efficient. It is understood that local insurance figures will be based on this rating.

Accompanying the representative of the board was Paul Save, battalion chief, and Edward Henry, superintendent of engines, representing Chief R. J. Scott of the Los Angeles fire department.

Engine No. 42, under the direction of Lieutenant E. W. Welty, made the run from the City Hall to a point approximately 150 feet south of Colorado boulevard, on Maywood avenue, and around the corner to where the hydrant is located, in record time, laying off 150 feet of hose and delivering water at 140 pounds pressure in forty seconds from the time the signal was given, while in just one minute and fifteen seconds from the time of the signal the pump was hooked up and they were delivering water at 250 pounds pressure.

Other tests served to show that the big triple combination American-La France engine could deliver 875 gallons of water per minute, hooked up with a "deluge" set.

Lt. Welty Talks on Test.
Lieutenant E. W. Welty, following the underwriters' test, declared that one reason for its success is that the Los Angeles fire department is today, under the leadership of Chief Scott, a well-oiled machine, functioning as efficiently as any similar department in the country.

"With the expansion problem and its attendant worries partially overcome," said Lieutenant Welty, "Chief Scott is directing his energies to the education of each man in the department to the end that every man will be a specialist in his work, or he will be offered good inducements to change to other fields of endeavor. In the past, the principle requisite to be a fireman was to get to the fire as soon as possible and see how much water you could pump out of the mains. The result was usually a greater loss cases of persons using only one side of their mouth. Often this condition can be corrected by arranging the teeth so all "hit" together.

To those who think dentists are eager to find fault with teeth to work up practice for themselves, Dr. Benjamin S. Partridge, president of the Chicago Dental society, has this reply: "There are 45,000 ethical dentists to attempt to care for the needs of the entire population. Obviously the job is too big for them. We hope to see the establishment all over the country of free dental clinics."

Teeth are Offenders.
Dr. John Meisser, of the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn., said teeth giving no symptoms, pain or discomfort often were the worst offenders.

"From such teeth," he explained, "bacteria often have been isolated. By injection of these bacteria into experimental animals we have reproduced the same diseases attacking the patients. In every case the patient improved and often recovered completely."

from water than by fire. But that principle is obsolete today. The officers of the department are being schooled in all phases of their work, and that schooling will be made to reach from the highest to the lowest. It is truly a day of evolution, and with a wise leader to guide our destinies, the citizenry of Los Angeles should reap the reward that comes from a higher standard of efficiency."

Western Rangers Meet.
The Eagle Rock council of the Western Rangers will hold their regular Wednesday meeting in the Eagle Rock school at 7:30 o'clock the night of February 6. It is announced.

The work of the Western Rangers has recently been endorsed by Paul G. Redington, district forester of the United States forest service, and by Colonel H. R. Richmond, liaison officer of the war department at Washington, D. C.

In a letter to Harry C. James, founder and chief of the Western Rangers, Colonel Richmond declares that Ranger work tends to develop manly character in boys, to give them endurance, hardihood, strength, courage, honor and obedience, "upon which qualities depend the security of our homes, the welfare of our people, the permanence of our form of constitutional government—in fact the whole structure of Anglo-Saxon civilization."

In order to keep clean stocks clean and make room for new spring merchandise, the racks must be entirely cleared of any left over from other seasons. This is the outstanding feature carried out in the merchandising policy of Mr. F. K. McNeil, our new manager and buyer for the second floor, whose services we have fortunately secured. He has had wide experience in this line, and Wednesday will start his "Introductory Sale" in the Ready-to-Wear Department.

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT READY TO WEAR SALES OF THE SEASON WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY MORNING ON THE SECOND FLOOR OF

Looks Into Gas Tank with Lighted Match

Looking into the gas tank of a Dodge sedan with a lighted match caused a man by the name of Hays grief yesterday at 1231 South Brand boulevard.

The gas exploded and an alarm was turned in to the fire department. When they arrived, however, they found that he had presence of mind enough to throw his coat over the tank, smothering the fire. There was no damage resulting.

Most Mexican churches owe their importance and in many cases their existence to some special image, mysterious painting, or miraculous cross.

Parliament Jailbirds Hold Big Celebration

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Seventeen members of the House of Commons who have served jail sentences celebrated recently by giving an elaborate dinner in the House of Commons restaurant. The majority of the members of the "House of Commons Prison club" are Labor members who have served sentences for religious or political offenses. Among the offenses for which the members have served time were conscientious objection, suffrage activities, anti-vaccination campaigns and passive resistance. Among those who attended the dinner were E. D. Morel, J. H. Hudson, W. H. Ayres, C. Dukes, E. Spinwell, J. Maxton, David Kirkwood, A. W. Haycock, S. March, J. S. Carr, W. John, J. W. Muir, Morgan Jones, R. C. Wallhead, F. W. Pethick Lawrence, G. L. Davies and Miss Susan Lawrence.
